

Hexar Flexible Rifle In Conjunction With Armor

Hexar is a flexible rifle rated armor that molds to your body for excellent comfort. No more edges sticking out, or hard armor outlines that undermine concealability. The ownership of Stealth Armor Systems wrote the book on flexible rifle rated armor and has decades more experience than the closest competitor. Hexar is made in America from quality materials.

In Conjunction With (ICW) Rifle armor is very popular for fitting with a 3-A soft armored vests, and nobody is better at than Stealth Armor Systems, as we have almost 27 years with this type of armor. ICW Armor gives the end user the stealthiest hi-threat armor possible, and the most scalability, which allows for tailoring your armor for the mission!
