RE: Raija Easterbrook

To whom it may concern;

Raija Easterbrook has provided services for my company, as well as me personally, since the spring of 1990.

At that point my business was in need of having approximately 150 chairs reupholstered. She also provided us with alterations and new material for curtains for the windows.

Following that, Raija has reupholstered a different set of 100 chairs as well as done private alterations for our personal clothing.

Raija has always been punctual, her work has been exemplary and she has gone out of her way to provide us with excellent and professional service.

I have no hesitation in recommending Raija to any future customers or employers. We wish her all the best in her future endeavours.
