

Quick Learning Guide:

Herbert Butros Khaury, Musician

Did You Know...

- Herbert borrowed his stage name “Tiny Tim” from the character in the Charles Dickens’ story A Christmas Carol.
- Herbert was the son of a Polish Jewish mother and a Lebanese Catholic father.
- His music can be heard in some episodes of Spongebob Squarepants.

Who Was Tiny Tim?

Tiny Tim performed as a singer and guitar/ukulele player in 1960s Greenwich Village before making guest appearances on Laugh-In and The Ed Sullivan Show. Known for his distinctive falsetto, he had a hit with his remake of “Tip-Toe Through the Tulips With Me.” His wedding to his fiancée Miss Vicki on The Tonight Show also drew the most viewers in the show’s history. He died on November 30, 1996.

Khaury in 1971

Born	Herbert Butros Khaury April 12, 1932 Manhattan, New York City, U.S.
Died	November 30, 1996 (aged 64) Minneapolis, Minnesota, U.S.
Resting place	Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis, Minnesota, U.S. 44°56′9.92″N 93°17′57.277″W Coordinates: 44°56′9.92″N 93°17′57.277″W
Other names	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Dary Dover● Sir Timothy Timms● Larry Love the Singing Canary● Tiny Tim
Spouse(s)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Victoria Mae Budinger (m. 1969; div. 1977)● Jan Alweiss (m. 1984; div. 1995)● Susan Marie Gardner (m. 1995)
Children	1
	Musical career
Genres	Americana
Occupation(s)	Singer, musician
Instruments	Ukulele , mandolin, guitar, violin, vocals
Years active	1962–1996