

JD BAIL BONDING

In-House Bail Bond Financing

Minimum Qualifications & Required Documentation

JD Bail Bonding offers in-house financing options to qualified clients who meet our minimum eligibility requirements. Approval is based on the applicant's ability to demonstrate sufficient income, stability, and willingness to meet the financial obligations of the bond agreement.

Minimum Qualifications

To be considered for in-house bail bond financing, the applicant must:

- Be at least 18 years of age.
- Provide a valid government-issued photo ID.
- Provide verification of a current residential address.
- Provide verification of employment and/or a reliable source of income.
- Meet all underwriting and approval requirements established by JD Bail Bonding.
- Be financially responsible for making all required payments in accordance with the financing agreement.
- Provide any additional information or documentation reasonably requested during the approval process.

Minimum Bond Amount

In-house financing is available only for qualifying bonds with a minimum bond amount of $10,000.

Bonds below $10,000 are not eligible for JD Bail Bonding's in-house financing program.

Minimum Down Payment

Approved applicants must pay a minimum down payment of 5% of the total bond amount before the bond can be posted.

Example:

A $10,000 bond would require a minimum initial down payment of $500.

The required down payment may be higher depending on the circumstances of the bond, applicant qualifications, collateral requirements, or other approval factors.

Required Documentation

Applicants seeking in-house financing should be prepared to provide the following:

1. Government-Issued Photo Identification

- Valid driver's license
- State-issued identification card
- U.S. passport
- Military identification
- Other valid government-issued photo identification acceptable to JD Bail Bonding

2. Proof of Employment and/or Income

Acceptable documentation may include:

- Recent pay stubs
- Employment verification
- Employer contact information
- Bank statements
- Social Security or retirement benefit documentation
- Tax documentation
- Proof of self-employment income
- Other documentation demonstrating a verifiable and reliable source of income

3. Proof of Residence

Acceptable documentation may include:

- Current utility bill
- Lease or rental agreement
- Mortgage statement
- Property tax statement
- Bank statement
- Government correspondence
- Insurance statement
- Other documentation showing the applicant's current residential address

Additional documentation may be required depending on the circumstances of the bond and the applicant's financial situation.

Important Information

Meeting the minimum qualifications does not guarantee financing approval. All applications are subject to review and approval by JD Bail Bonding.

JD Bail Bonding reserves the right to require additional documentation, a larger down payment, collateral, a co-signer/indemnitor, or other financial requirements when appropriate.

All financing terms, payment amounts, and payment schedules must be agreed upon before the bond is posted.

Failure to make required payments or comply with the terms of the bail bond agreement may result in additional collection efforts, enforcement of contractual rights, and/or other remedies available under applicable law.

JD Bail Bonding reserves the right to modify eligibility requirements and financing terms as permitted by applicable North Carolina law and regulations.
