Vincy Beatz and Kryz MRK are a musical collaboration based in the UK and St. Vincent and the Grenadines in the Carribean. They have collaborated to record the infectious “Sure is Funky” (Ola Ola) which is released on the 28th of June 2024 via Masterroom Music. Emerging musical sensation Kryz Mrk is the talent behind this song which uniquely and tastefully fuses rap, funk and pop.

Based in Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Kryz Mrk’s affinity for jazz and new soul, along with his captivating stage presence, have already resulted in him being likened to Jimi Hendrix. No stranger to the stage, he has performed at the Bequia Music Festival and the International Music Conference hosted by Grammy-winning musician, Shaggy, as well as a number of locations across St. Vincent and the Grenadines and Jamaica, including Sandals Resort and the Bob Marley Museum. In 2022, he participated in the Commonwealth Games International Writing Camp hosted by the UK Trade Department. He subsequently participated in the Masterroom Music International Writing Camp, convened in St. Vincent and the Grenadines in 2023 and, in 2024, he further honed his craft in the International Songwriting Camp, which was held at the iconic Tuff Gong Studio in Kingston, Jamaica.

His upcoming single is not just another manifestation of his song writing prowess, but also a new milestone in his career. Although this is his third single, it is his first release under the name Kryz

Mrk. Singing “I bet you didn’t know God made ‘em like this”, Kryz Mrk’s talent shines through in this refreshing and funky new single.
