

Registered participants will receive the handout on their scheduled date.

The handout will be available on the GenealogyKC website after the conference concludes.