

Certified Martial Arts Master Instructor (CMAMI) Course Details

Course Overview

The Certified Martial Arts Master Instructor (MAMI) certification represents an elite level of instructor education for highly experienced martial arts professionals. The program focuses on master-level teaching methodology, advanced coaching strategies, leadership development, and academy management.

Designed For

- Experienced martial arts instructors
- Certified instructors seeking advanced professional development
- Martial arts leaders responsible for academy programs
- Instructors mentoring assistant and junior instructors

Program Duration

60-80 hours of advanced instructor education and practical training

What You Will Learn

- Master level martial arts teaching methodology
- Advanced coaching and athlete development strategies
- Instructor mentoring and leadership development
- Curriculum design and academy program management
- Organizational leadership within martial arts institutions
- Professional standards in martial arts education

Certification

Participants who successfully complete the program will receive the professional certification Certified Martial Arts Master Instructor (CMAMI) issued by the International Federation for Martial Arts Education (IFMAE).

About IFMAE

IFMAE promotes global standards in martial arts instruction, instructor education, and professional training programs. The federation supports the development of qualified instructors and educational programs worldwide.