

Senior Martial Arts Instructor (SMAI) Course Details

Course Overview

The Senior Martial Arts Instructor (SMAI) certification is designed for experienced instructors who wish to advance their teaching skills and take on leadership roles within martial arts academies. The program focuses on advanced instructional methods, mentoring junior instructors, and developing structured training programs for students.

Designed For

- Experienced martial arts instructors
- Certified instructors seeking advanced professional development
- Martial arts leaders responsible for academy programs
- Instructors mentoring assistant and junior instructors

Program Duration

40-50 hours of advanced instructor education and practical training

What You Will Learn

- Advanced martial arts teaching methodology
- Instructor mentoring and leadership development
- Curriculum design and program management
- Student performance evaluation and progression systems
- Advanced coaching and training strategies
- Professional academy leadership skills

Certification

Participants who successfully complete the program will receive the professional certification Senior Martial Arts Instructor (SMAI) issued by the International Federation for Martial Arts Education (IFMAE).

About IFMAE

IFMAE promotes global standards in martial arts instruction, instructor education, and professional training programs. The federation supports the development of qualified instructors and educational programs worldwide.