

2026 Non-Profit Application

The Hinesville Farmers Market offers a unique opportunity for non-profit organizations to fundraise, create awareness, and promote their causes. The Market is conducted Thursdays (3 to 7 p.m., March through October) at BRADWELL Park/107 S. Commerce St. Non-profit space is limited to two (2) agencies per week at no charge. Non Profits are limited to one free visit per month. Early requests are recommended while free booth dates are available.

SET-UP HOURS, REGULATIONS & UTILITIES: Set-up time is 2 p.m. Booth staff/volunteers must follow the same guidelines as the vendors and may not enter the market area before 2 p.m. unless approval is received. Market staff will communicate via e-mail for booth placement prior to market. The Booth must be completely set up by 3 p.m. and remain set up until the Market closes at 7 p.m. Early tardowns are not permitted! Vendors arriving late to the Market MUST check in with the Market management before entering the event area and may be denied permission to set up. Vendors are responsible for all set-up items such as tables, chairs, canopies, and canopy weights. All activities must occur in the assigned booth area. Shade during the summer months is highly recommended. Tents/canopies must be secured to sustain wind gusts as required by the City of Hinesville Inspections Department and is a condition of our event permit. They must have 25lbs per leg consisting of a tent weights or sandbags, not bricks, water jugs, or stakes. Only whisper-soft/quiet generators such as the Honda EU series inverter models or equivalent are allowed and must be pre-approved by HDDA staff.
