Leitwolf LLC Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 01 November 2023

Leitwolf ("we", "our", or "us") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting any personal information you provide through our website.

1. Information We Collect - We collect personal information when you submit it via our contact form. This may include:

- Your name

- Your email address

- Any information you include in your message

We also use GoDaddy hosting, which may collect anonymous technical data like IP addresses or browser types for performance and analytics.

2. How We Use Your Information - We use the information you submit only to:

- Respond to your inquiries

- Provide customer service or support

We do not share, sell, or use this information for marketing purposes unless you've explicitly asked us to.

3. Data Sharing - We do not sell or share your personal information. However, third-party services such as GoDaddy may collect certain technical data (like cookies or IP logs) to support site functionality and security. You can view GoDaddy's privacy policy here: https://www.godaddy.com/legal/agreements/privacy-policy

4. Your Rights - You can contact us at any time to request that we delete your personal information submitted through the contact form.

5. Contact - If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, you can reach us at:

Leitwolf, LLC
Email: info@leitwolf.net

6. Use of AI Tools - We use artificial intelligence (AI) tools, such as language models, to assist with certain tasks in our business. This may include:

- Drafting or editing blog content

- Improving the clarity of customer communications

- Supporting research and content generation

These tools are used to improve efficiency and quality, but final content is always reviewed by a human before publication.

We do not use AI to make automated decisions about you or your data.
We also do not share or input private customer data (such as form submissions or emails) into AI tools without your knowledge or consent.

If you have questions or concerns about our use of AI, please contact us through the email above.
