THE FALL SEASON AND BIBLICAL HARVEST

Autumn

Autumn is a favorite season for many. The smell of cinnamon, nutmeg, and vanilla fills a kitchen. The colors of carrots, squash, and green beans are all beautifully arranged on a table. The sound of dried leaves rustling in the wind is like nature's music. People may also love autumn for the sense of nostalgia, holidays, and new beginnings. We look forward to sharing stories and laughs with family and friends. Autumn is not only a significant time culturally, but this season also holds Biblical significance. We can study Scripture and its theme of harvest to gain a deeper perspective of fall. For those of us who place our faith in Christ, autumn signifies the gospel and the coming of Jesus.

Old Testament Fall Feasts

Scripture introduces gospel hope through the fall feasts among the ancient Israelites. The Israelites were God's chosen people through whom He revealed His plan of redemption. Living in an agrarian society, the Israelites viewed autumn in light of harvest. Harvest refers to a process or period when crops are gathered. To accompany the harvest season, God told the Israelites to celebrate three festivals (Leviticus 23 and Numbers 29). These festivals included the Feast of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement, and the Feast of Tabernacles.

As indicated in its name, the Feast of Trumpets began with a blast of a trumpet. Scholars claim that the instrument's sound gathered the people and signified the arrival of God as their King. The Day of Atonement was when the High Priest entered the Holy of Holies, the place where the glory of God resided. The priest performed animal sacrifices there and then released a goat into the wilderness. These actions symbolized sin's payment and its removal from the people of God. Finally, the Feast of Tabernacles was a time to remember God dwelled with the Israelites during their wilderness journey. The Israelites feasted on harvested produce and rejoiced in God's provision.

When the harvest season was over, however, the Israelites continued in their brokenness. Nevertheless, in the festivals, God revealed that He would have mercy on His people, save them from sin, and dwell with them forever. Through Christ, the fall feasts have their fulfillment.

The Harvest Mission

In Jesus' life, we see the realization in what the fall feasts symbolized. For instance, the Eternal Son of God came to earth and took on flesh. When He was born, a host of angels announced the arrival of King Jesus. The heavenly beings praised His name, and, like the sound of trumpets, their praises excited shepherds nearby to see. As the Israelites gathered together during the Feast of Trumpets, the shepherds too gathered before the manger.

Throughout His ministry, Jesus lived with His people. The God of the universe was with the lowly and humble. In Christ, He dwelt with us in a way similar to the Lord's presence in the tabernacle but more intimate. The joy of His nearness was foreshadowed in the Feast of Tabernacles. But, in His first coming, His people feasted on His goodness and rejoiced in His salvation. Finally, when Jesus hung on the cross, Jesus embodied the Day of Atonement. As the Banished Goat, He took on our sins and was rejected. As the Spotless Lamb, He offered His body as a perfect sacrifice to pay for our debt. Jesus was also the True High Priest who entered the Holy of Holies and gave us access to God the Father at all times.

Jesus equated bringing people to salvation with the work of the fall season. After preaching the good news about the kingdom and healing people from sin, Jesus said to His disciples, "The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest" (Matthew 9:35-38). Belief in the gospel is a spiritual harvest. Through our faith in Him, Jesus reaps us for the kingdom of God.

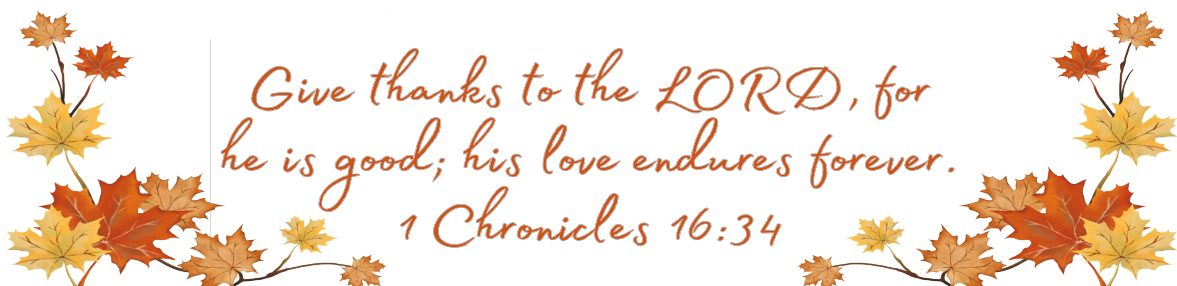

Preparing for Jesus' Return

Autumn not only looks back to what Jesus accomplished but also looks forward to His second coming. One day, we will hear a trumpet sound, and Jesus will descend from heaven (1 Thessalonians 4:16). Christ will raise us from the grave like the sprouts of good seeds bursting from a field (Matthew 13:37-43). Our natures will change to the glorious likeness of Christ (1 Corinthians 15:52). Jesus will remove sin and evil for good, like casting the goat into the wilderness, and His people will be covered in His blood. We will forever celebrate in God's abundant presence, expressing praise and thanks for His salvation.

Until the time of this great harvest, we can reflect on these truths during the fall season. Though believers today do not need to celebrate the Biblical feasts because of the finished work of Christ, we can still set aside time to consider God's Kingship, mercy, and provision in Jesus. With the indwelling Holy Spirit, we can strive to reach maturity by sowing seeds of faithfulness so that we are ripe for Christ's return (Galatians 6:7-9). We can be sure that God will make us ready for His harvest, for the power of God's redemption does not fail.

As the crisp autumn air comes in, view this time through the lens of Biblical truth. When we see the leaves change color, our minds can remember our transformation into the image of Jesus. When we cozy up in a warm sweater, our hands can reach for the comfort of God's presence. When we taste the sweetness of a pumpkin-spiced latte, our hearts can know that God has a sweeter gift for us in eternity.

Look for the Thankoffering envelope in your church mailbox. Please make your check out to Faith W-ELCA, with the MEMO: Thankoffering, and bring it to church or pop it in the mail!

FINANCIAL REPORT

August 31, 2024

1. Comments

- a. Member giving continues below budget this month. Total Income for the month was slightly below budget.
- b. Expenses were significantly below budget because we chose not to transfer unspent Pastoral Expense to the New Pastor Reserve Fund “savings” account on our balance sheet. We made this decision to offset the budgeted shortfall for August. If we had transferred the unspent monies to the New Pastor Reserve fund, we would have had a loss of over $6,000 for the month. To avoid this sizeable monthly loss, we decided not to transfer the unspent Pastoral Expense, given the New Pastor Reserve fund now has over $57,000.
- c. We are using some of the money we aren’t spending on a full-time pastor to compensate Pastor Shane for providing Pastoral Care to our congregation during our transition. This seems to be well-received by our members. If you would like to talk with him, just call the Church Office and Lynn will get you connected.

Collaborative Pledging: The Stewardship Team

All year long, the folks of Faith Lutheran Church are giving and receiving. There is great abundance here, in facilities, emotional and spiritual support, shared talents, and investments of time. And every week people make donations in the form of checks, cash, or automatic payments.

Stewardship is time, talent, and treasure. Time + Talent = Enthusiasm and Love. These keep the church alive and growing. And all of this rests on Treasure, regular donations, which are the very foundation of the Church. Treasure is how the expenses are paid.

Every day people here are making a difference in our shared experience; we talk about it all the time. And once a year we have to take time to talk about Treasure.

We have a Strategic Planning Committee in place to develop new and better ways to keep us going into the future. The goal is sustainability: that's where the money coming in is at least equal to the money going out. Right now, expenses are greater than income by about $40,000 per year. To help us close this gap, and achieve sustainability we want to be able to forecast income. There are many other strategies too, anything that will bring in new people for example; forecasting is just a way to anticipate the year ahead.

To help us forecast donations this year we are adding an option for giving. We are adding a Collaborative Pledging program, which is typical of many churches.

All giving is up to you: if, how, and when you give. You can do exactly what you did last year. It's up to you. You can have treasure delivered on the back of a donkey if you choose. We don't care.

Or you can participate in the Collaborative Pledge program this year to help us forecast revenue for 2025. Hopefully, Collaborative Pledging will grow in the years ahead.

You will receive a letter and a pledge card in the mail the week of October 7th. Another letter will come again each week for two weeks to assist in your prayerful pledge decision. As always, how much you give is between you and God. November 3rd will be "Pledge Sunday" when you can place your pledge in the locked Treasure Chest. Those pledges will only be seen by one or two individuals who will record them in your name.

As you give throughout the year all donations will be recorded if we have the name of the giver, no matter how you give, so we can give you a report at the end of the year for taxes.

When we tally up all the pledges in the treasure chest we will announce the total collaborative pledge, so we can see how we did. This year it will just be our first try, so it probably will not help us forecast revenue for 2025, but we will do this each year to see how we did versus the prior year. Over time, our forecasting should improve – helping us achieve sustainability.

For Collaborative Pledges, in six months we will also send a private update on how you did versus your pledge so far. This is only for your information: no other use.

There is great abundance here at Faith Lutheran Church, and we hope to grow this congregation, tend to the facilities, and grow the foundation of Treasure on which it rests. Sustainability means carrying our mission forward indefinitely, enriching our shared experience, and adding new friends and increasing our abundance. Amen.

Greetings Dear Women of Faith!

Welcome October and cooler fall weather! The year is quickly coming to an end and with that, new Women of the ELCA Board Members will need to be nominated. Candy Pellechio, Diane Molina, and Kandie Hulme have volunteered to be nominated for President, Vice-President, and Treasurer. Unfortunately, my term as Secretary has come to an end, so we need someone to take notes at meetings. PLEASE, PLEASE think (and pray)....could this be one of your TIME-TALENT-TREASURE opportunities? I will provide any training you think you may require, and I will continue to attend meetings so will be a resource. It's a fun group....please consider joining us!!

September General Meeting was held Saturday, September 21, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. We had a total of nine attendees. Candy Pellechio led the meeting, Lorna Harrison provided devotions and the Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were reviewed. After the business portion of the meeting, Gloria Sanchez, Caroline Rath, and our own Linda Blanche spoke about caregiving, hospice care, and the latest scams to be aware of. They provided a lot of great information and opened the floor for questions/discussions. Lunch and fellowship followed.

December General Meeting is scheduled for December 14, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. Plans are progressing for our Christmas luncheon and Party with a Purpose.

Annual Fundraiser – We will decide during our December meeting what organization will be receiving our fundraising money. If you want a specific non-profit to be considered, please e-mail me at cgibson902@live.com and I'll present them to the Women of the ELCA Board for discussion.

The Pacifica W-ELCA Convention and Gathering on October 18-19, 2024 will be held at Spirit of our Savior, San Bernardino (please note the location change). A sign-up sheet is located in the Narthex. Please note that you may attend either or both days. Hotel rooms have been reserved and carpooling will be available.

“Let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth.” —1 John 3:18

For 50 years we have joined together as Lutherans to address the root causes of hunger and poverty around the world through ELCA World Hunger. Part of our church’s long tradition of meeting human needs, ELCA World Hunger testifies to our hope for and commitment to God’s promise of a time when we will hunger and thirst no more. In 2024 we will commemorate the 50th anniversary of this ministry. We have made great strides, but once again we face a startling increase in global hunger. As we reflect on our last 50 years of ministry together, we know God calls us to respond to the needs of the world now more than ever.

Join us and be part of the story of our next 50 years together — boldly and faithfully pursuing God’s promise of a just world where all are fed.
