Our Common Commitment

Deo Gratias Ministries Detroit Commitment

Deo Gratias Ministries Detroit is committed to providing our volunteers with the best possible volunteer experience. DGMD agrees to:

- * responsibly screen, supervise and provide support to its volunteers
- * talk to the volunteer regularly about how things are going with his/her service
- * keep the volunteer informed about relevant changes at the organization

The Volunteer Commitment

I understand that becoming a volunteer requires making a commitment to Deo Gratias Ministries Detroit and to the people it serves. Therefore, I agree to:

- * respect the staff, other volunteers, and people we serve
- * keep my promise to serve at least _____ hours per _____ week or _____ month
- * notify DGMD when I have questions or problems
- * keep DGMD informed when I have a change in my personal information
- * respect the privacy of those we serve; however, if I am in any way concerned about safety issues, I will discuss my concerns with my supervisor.

As an applicant for a volunteer position with Deo Gratias Ministries Detroit, I attest to the truthfulness of the information I have provided in my application. I understand that my services are voluntary, therefore, I do not expect any compensation. I agree to abide by the rules, regulations, and policies of DGMD. I will maintain confidentiality concerning guests, employees and volunteers.

I have completed the "Protecting God's Children" training workshop.

I have not completed the "Protecting God's Children" training workshop.
