If the Applicant does not comply with the Board ruling within such period, the Board may, at its option: (i) record a Notice of Noncompliance against the property on which the noncompliance exists, (ii) levy a fine in an amount not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) per month for each month the noncompliance exists, (iii) may remove the noncomplying improvement to property, and/or (iv) may otherwise remedy the noncompliance. The Applicant shall reimburse the Association, upon demand, for all expenses incurred therewith. Said expenses shall constitute a lien against the real property upon which the noncompliance exists and may be collected in the same manner as a monthly assessment. The right of the Association to remedy or remove any noncompliance shall be in addition to all other rights and remedies which the Association may have at law, in equity, or under the Declaration.

ARTICLE IX
BOOKS AND RECORDS

9.1 Inspection by Members. The official list of members, books of account, and minutes of meetings of the members, of the Board, and of committees shall be made available for inspection and copying by any member of the Association, or by his duly appointed representative, at any reasonable time and for a purpose reasonably related to this interest as a member, at the office of the Association or at such other place as the Board shall prescribe. Members may be charged reasonable fees relative to the inspection and copying of records.

9.2 Rules for Inspection. The Board shall establish reasonable rules with respect to:

- (a) notice to be given to the custodian of the records by the member desiring to make the inspection;
- (b) hours and days of the week when such an inspection may be made; and
- (c) payment of the cost of reproducing copies of documents requested by a member.
- (d) payment of the cost of preparing records for inspection by the member if the request is extensive and/or involves voluminous records.

9.3 Inspection by Directors. Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, and documents of the Association and the physical properties owned or controlled by the Association. The right of inspection by a Director includes the right to make extra copies of documents at the reasonable expense of the Association.

ARTICLE X ASSESSMENTS

As more fully provided in the Declaration, each member is obligated to pay to the Association the annual and special assessment(s) which are secured by a continuing lien upon the property against which the assessment is made. Any assessments which are not paid when due shall be delinquent. If the assessment is not paid within fifteen (15) days after the due date, the assessment shall be subject to a late fee and interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of eighteen (18) percent per annum or as determined by Board Resolution, and the Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose against the property. Interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees shall be added to the amount of such assessment or action. No owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by nonuse of the Common Area or abandonment of his Lot.

ARTICLE XI
CORPORATE SEAL

The Association shall have a seal in circular form having within its circumference, the words: "Villas at Havasu Foothills Association, Inc. -- ARIZONA -- Incorporated."

ARTICLE XII
AMENDMENTS
