[Cape Town, South Africa – June 7, 2024] – DJ Coshier and acclaimed singer-songwriter Jann Klose are thrilled to announce the release of their original single ‘Love is a Verb,’ available on all major streaming platforms from today, June 7th.

‘Love is a Verb’ marks an exciting collaboration between two talented artists, blending DJ Coshier's dynamic production skills with Jann Klose's heartfelt songwriting and vocal prowess. The single was conceived during Klose's 2023 tour in South Africa, where the duo met up in Cape Town for a spontaneous writing session.

Reflecting on the creation of the song, Klose shares, "While on tour in South Africa in 2023, I met up with DJ Coshier in Cape Town for a writing session. We had previously met through BMI at a songwriting camp and had kept in touch. We wrote the verse and chorus parts and put together a basic demo of 'Love is a Verb' in the afternoon. I later wrote the second verse lyrics at home in New York, and after DJ Coshier sent me the produced track, I recorded my vocals at my home studio in Astoria, Queens. DJ Coshier sparked the lyrical idea of 'Love is a Verb' with the intent to illustrate that actions speak louder than words."

DJ Coshier echoes the sentiment of a fruitful collaboration, stating, "Working with Jann was amazing. We had worked together previously during a songwriting camp, and I was aware of his impressive accolades as a songwriter and singer and being a great energy to work with. The songwriting session itself was productive and constructive; we both pushed each other in directions that benefited both of us and that was cool to experience. Working with someone who has a creative mind like Jann, always wanting to push the limits on his creativity, was truly inspiring. The vocals were then re-recorded by Jann remotely in the USA where he lives, and it was a great way to work together because then I was able to focus on the production and we just mixed the track. The song was included on my album 'Certified, Vol. 2', but I'm excited about having it pushed as a single and to give it the platform it deserves as the great song that it is."

'Love is a Verb' promises to captivate listeners with its powerful message and compelling blend of styles, emphasizing that true love is demonstrated through actions. The track highlights the seamless synergy between DJ Coshier's electronic beats and Jann Klose's emotive vocals, making it a standout release for both artists.
