One day a poor cap-seller was so tired, that he went to sleep under a tree. While he slept, the monkeys opened his bundle of caps and wore them.

When the cap-seller awoke, he saw that the monkeys had stolen his caps.

Hey there, Those are my caps.

The monkeys only grinned and shook their fist at him.

This gave him a clever idea.

He threw his own cap on the ground.

All the monkeys then, threw their caps on the ground.

The cap-seller smiled to himself, collected his caps and tied them up in to his bundle, again.
