

Director's Note

A Sherlock Carol is a play that combines the best of two beloved Victorian classics—Charles Dickens's A Christmas Carol, and Arthur Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes. Living up to those names is a tall order, but luckily we have a wonderful cast who have risen to the occasion! We've been blown away by their ability to capture the drama and the heart of each of these stories, even with the added challenge of juggling multiple characters. The holidays, while a lovely respite from the daily grind, can also be a stressful time. We hope the audience will enjoy joining us for this brief escape from the present into the world of 1890's London, and will take to heart the show's lessons about connecting with those you care about and using your unique gifts to give back to the world.

Thank you to our superstar cast and crew, as well as everyone else who has made this show possible, including YOU in the audience! Please enjoy A Sherlock Carol!

A Note From the President

To Our Honored Patrons,

Electric City Playhouse has been a part of the local arts community since 1984. We have been a nonprofit since the 90's and love being able to work in Anderson to help lift up our community. We have helped women receive feminine products with AIM, helped build with Habitat for Humanity, and helped raise money for the Cancer Association of Anderson to name a few.

You, as our patrons, are included in this. Supporting the arts helps support other parts of our community as well.

Here at ECP, we also love being able to showcase our local talent. The talent that I've seen come and go over the past decade is outstanding!

I am proud to serve this theater as their board President. Please join me as we build this beautiful piece of the upstate together in the arts for the future!

Jason Crews (Sherlock Holmes)

Jason R. Crews is excited to be performing at the Electric City Playhouse for what he hopes is the first of many times. He is originally from Savannah, GA and is a graduate of Clemson University and Fairleigh Dickinson University. He is excited and honored to play one of his favorite literary figures, Sherlock Holmes. He dedicates this performance to his mother, Pat Crews, for instilling his love of mysteries and his girlfriend, Ali Hamilton, for her constant support.

Hugh Spitler (Ebenezer Scrooge)

Hugh has been involved in productions at several upstate community theaters since 2004. He's played a range of roles including Mr. Mushnik in Little Shop of Horrors, the prosecutor in To Kill A Mockingbird, and a bunch more. He specializes in creating hard to find unique and period-correct props and set details, such as a functioning Coke machine, a 1940s console radio, a turn of the century phonograph, an old-fashioned pay phone, and Dracula's coffin, He dedicates this show to his wife Nancy, and thanks ECP for the opportunity to play such an interesting character.

Vicki Woodward (Mrs. Dilbur/Elderly Woman)

Vicki has long been active in upstate community theater, especially at Oconee Community Theatre, where she has been active for 40 years and served on the board of directors. Some of her recent and favorite roles include Bellagamba in Fish Camp, Hecate in Macbeth at Clemson Little Theatre, and Lady Capulet in Romeo and Juliet. She has also directed youth theater, Musical Comedy Murders of 1940, Bully Plays, and more! Her favorite role, however, is being the grandmother of four beautiful grandchildren. She dedicates this performance to her new friends and theatre family at ECP.

Rachel Smith (Mrs. Windigate, Martha Cratchit, Abby Fezziwig)

While this is her debut performance in community theatre, Rachel grew up performing in various church and school productions – including a leading role in Aladdin Jr. her senior of high school. In college, Rachel had the opportunity to both perform and direct a dinner theatre fundraiser hosted by her college ministry to raise funds for summer missions. After some time away from the theatre, Rachel found that she enjoys directorial roles and helping young actors and actresses perform his or her best on stage.

A Sherlock Carol is easily her favorite show that she has been a part of so far and she looks forward to continue being a part of local, community theatres.

To my family and friends who have encouraged me more than you know, thank you!

Jesse Winner (Dr. Timothy Cratchit, Mr. Topper, Ralph Fezziwig, Constable Bradstreet, Narrator One)

Jesse Winner is excited to be working in this fun show with this talented cast in his return to the Anderson stage! He last performed at ECP as Mortimer Brewster in "Arsenic & Old Lace." Some of his favorite roles include: Ellard Sims (The Foreigner), Newt Blaylock (The Red Velvet Cake War) - all performed with the Mill Town Players in Pelzer. When he's not on stage, you can find him entertaining at the Piedmont Post Office where he's delivered mail for over 23 years. Jesse would especially like to thank his wife and 4 kids, his family and friends, and all the people that surround him on a daily basis for their inspiration and encouragement!

Ella Marcengill (Emma Wiggins, Fannie Gardner, Narrator Two)

Ella's previous roles include Amy March (Little Women), Narrator Two (The Holiday Channel Christmas Movie Wonderthon), Mush (Newsies), and Beth Bradley (The Best Christmas Pageant Ever).

She would like to dedicate this show to her family and friends for always supporting her in everything she does.

Austin LeRoy (Dr. Watson, Inspector Lestrade, Henry Burke, Old Joe Brackenridge, Narrator Three)

Austin LeRoy has been doing theatre for over three years. He has performed at Clemson Little Theatre, Market Theatre, and here at Electric City Playhouse. At Clemson Little Theatre he debuted in Blithe Spirit, and was in The 39 Steps. Here at Electric City Playhouse he debuted in The Exonerated, and has since performed in Hairspray, and Wait Until Dark. At Market Theatre he debuted in Rock of Ages, and acted in She Kills Monsters, James and the Giant Peach, and Something Rotten.

Leah Medlin (The Countess of Morcar, Mary Morstan, Caroler, Narrator Four)

Leah is so excited to make her debut in this ECP show. After an 8 year hiatus from acting (her last role being Glinda in The Wizard of Oz in 2017) she is so happy and blessed to be back on stage! Some fun facts about Leah include: she is an elementary school teacher, loves to crochet, is a trained singer, and is a huge Sherlock Holmes fan! Leah would like to dedicate her performance to her amazing Mom and Dad, without whom, she would never have the courage to follow her passions!

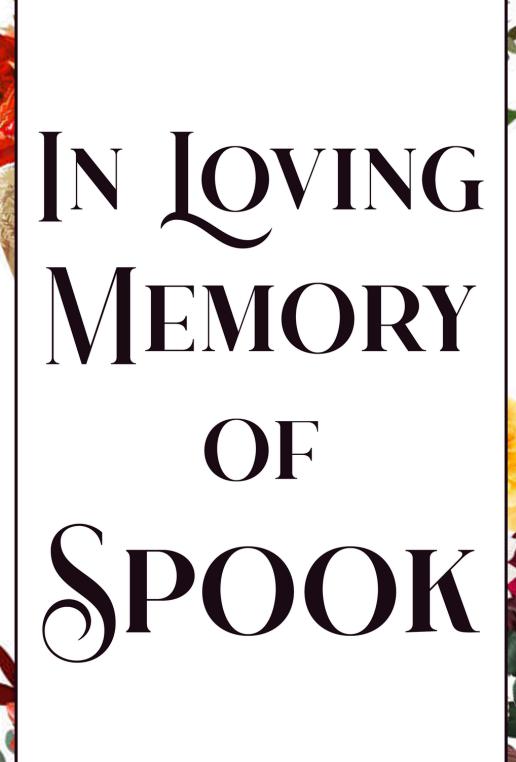

A special THANK YOU to Will Ragland and Milltown Players for specialty costumes!
