Malpractice policy & Procedure

Discovery Education treats all cases of suspected malpractice* very seriously and will investigate all suspected and reported incidents of possible malpractice. The purpose of this Policy [and Procedure] is to set out how allegations of malpractice are dealt with. The scope of the policy is to provide:

- a definition of malpractice
- examples of student and centre malpractice and maladministration;
- possible sanctions that may be imposed in cases of malpractice.

*The term 'malpractice' in this policy is used for both malpractice and maladministration.

1. Introduction

1.1. For the purpose of this document 'malpractice' is defined as:

Any act, or failure to act, that threatens or compromises the integrity of Discovery Education. This includes: maladministration and the failure to maintain appropriate records or systems; the deliberate falsification of records or documents for any reason; and/or actions that compromise the reputation or authority of Discovery Education, officers and employees.

1.2. Discovery Education will report all relevant cases of suspected malpractice, accepting that in certain circumstances it may take action of its own, including imposing sanctions.

2. Malpractice

1. Some examples of malpractice are described below. These examples are not exhaustive and all incidents of suspected malpractice, whether or not described below, will be fully investigated, where there are sufficient grounds to do so.

- 1.1. Arranging for an individual other than the student to sit an assessment or to submit an assignment not undertaken by the student.
- 1.2. Impersonating another student to sit an assessment or to submit an assignment on their behalf
- 1.3. Disruptive behaviour or unacceptable conduct, including the use of offensive language, at centre or assessment venue (including aggressive or offensive language or behaviour).
- 1.4. Producing, using or allowing the use of forged or falsified documentation, including but not limited to:
 - a) personal identification;
 - b) supporting evidence provided for reasonable adjustment or special consideration applications; and
 - c) CIPS results documentation, including certificates.
- 1.5. Falsely obtaining, by any means, a CIPS certificate.
- 1.6. Misrepresentation or plagiarism
- 1.7. Fraudulent claims for special consideration while studying.

(If the study centre is also an examination centre):

- 1.8. Possession of any materials not permitted in the assessment room, regardless of whether or not they are relevant to the assessment, or whether or not the student refers to them during the assessment process, for example notes, blank paper, electronic devices including mobile phones, personal organisers, books, dictionaries / calculators (when prohibited).
- 1.9. Communicating in any form, for example verbally or electronically, with other students in the assessment room when it is prohibited.
- 1.10. Copying the work of another student or knowingly allowing another student to copy from their own work.

- 1.11. Failure to comply with instructions given by the assessment invigilator, ie, working beyond the allocated time; refusing to hand in assessment script / paper when requested; not adhering to warnings relating to conduct during the assessment.

3. Malpractice by Discovery Education

3.1. Examples of malpractice by Discovery Education are listed below. These examples are not exhaustive and all incidents of suspected malpractice, whether or not described below, will be fully investigated, where there are sufficient grounds to do so.

- 3.1.1. Failure to adhere to the relevant CIPS regulations and procedures, including those relating to centre approval, security undertaking and monitoring requirements as set out by CIPS.
- 3.1.2. Knowingly allowing an individual to impersonate a student.
- 3.1.3. Allowing a student to copy another student's assignment work, or allowing a student to let their own work be copied.

- 3.1.5. Completing an assessed assignment for a student or providing them with assistance beyond that 'normally' expected.
- 3.1.6. Damaging a student's work.
- 3.1.7. Disruptive behaviour or unacceptable conduct, including the use of offensive language (including aggressive or offensive language or behaviour).
- 3.1.8. Allowing disruptive behaviour or unacceptable conduct at the centre to go unchallenged, for example, aggressive or offensive language or behaviour.
- 3.1.9. Divulging any information relating to student performance and / or results to anyone other than the student.

- 3.1.10. Producing, using or allowing the use of forged or falsified documentation, including but not limited to:
 - a) personal identification;
 - b) supporting evidence provided for reasonable adjustment or special consideration applications; and
 - c) CIPS results documentation, including certificates
- 3.1.11. Falsely obtaining by any means a CIPS certificate.
- 3.1.12. Failing to report a suspected case of student malpractice, including plagiarism, to CIPS.

(If the study centre is also an examination centre):

- 3.1.13. Moving the time or date of a fixed examination.
- 3.1.14. Failure to keep examination question papers, examination scripts or other assessment materials secure, before during or after an examination.
- 3.1.15. Allowing a student to possess and / or use material or electronic devices that are not permitted in the examination room.
- 3.1.16. Allowing students to communicate by any means during an examination in breach of regulations.
- 3.1.17. Allowing a student to work beyond the allotted examination time.
- 3.1.18. Leaving students unsupervised during an examination.
- 3.1.19. Assisting or prompting candidates with the production of answers.

4. Possible malpractice sanctions

- 4.1. Following an investigation, if a case of malpractice is upheld, Discovery Education may impose sanctions or other penalties on the individual(s) concerned. Any sanctions imposed will reflect the seriousness of the malpractice that has occurred.
- 4.2. Listed below are examples of sanctions that may be applied to an employee who has had a case of malpractice upheld against them. Please note that

- i) this list is not exhaustive and other sanctions may be applied on a case-by-case basis.

Possible sanctions that may be applied;

- a) A verbal or written warning about future conduct.
- b) Notification to an employer, regulator or the police.
- c) Dismissal

Procedure

5. Reporting a suspected case of malpractice

- 5.1. This process applies to all staff, and to any reporting of malpractice by a third party or individual who wishes to remain anonymous.
- 5.2. Any case of suspected malpractice should be reported in the first instance to Discovery Education directors
- 5.3. A written report should then be sent to the person identified in 5.2, clearly identifying the factual information, including statements from other individuals involved and / or affected, any evidence obtained, and the actions that have been taken in relation to the incident.
- 5.4. Suspected malpractice must be reported as soon as possible to the person identified in 5.2, and at the latest within two working days from its discovery.
- 5.5. In cases of suspected malpractice by staff, and any reporting of malpractice by a third party or individual who wishes to remain anonymous, the report made to the person in 5.2 should include as much information as possible, including the following:
 - a) the date time and place the alleged malpractice took place, if known.
 - b) the name of the centre teacher/tutor, invigilator or other person(s) involved
 - c) a description of the suspected malpractice; and

d) any available supporting evidence.

5.7 In cases of suspected malpractice reported by a third party, or an individual who wishes to remain anonymous, Discovery Education will take all reasonable steps to authenticate the reported information and to investigate the alleged malpractice.

6. Administering suspected cases of malpractice

6.1. Discovery Education will investigate each case of suspected or reported malpractice, to ascertain whether malpractice has occurred. The investigation will aim to establish the full facts and circumstances. We will promptly take all reasonable steps to prevent any adverse effect that may arise as a result of the malpractice, or to mitigate any adverse effect, as far as possible, and to correct it to make sure that any action necessary to maintain the integrity of the company and its reputation is taken.

6.2. Discovery Education will acknowledge all reports of suspected malpractice within five working days. All of the parties involved in the case will then be contacted within 10 working days of receipt of the report detailing the suspected malpractice. We may also contact other individuals who may be able to provide evidence relevant to the case.

6.3. The individual(s) concerned will be informed of the following:

- a) that an investigation is going to take place, and the grounds for that investigation;
- b) details of all the relevant timescales, and dates, where known;
- c) that they have a right to respond by providing a personal written response relating to the suspected malpractice (within 15 working days of the date of that letter);
- d) that, if malpractice is considered proven, sanctions may be imposed either by Discovery Education, (see section 6, below) reflecting the seriousness of the case;

- e) that, if they are found guilty, they have the right to appeal.
- f) that Discovery Education has a duty to inform all relevant authorities / regulators, but only after time for the appeal has passed or the appeal process has been completed. This may also include informing the police if the law has been broken and to comply with any other appropriate legislation.

6.4. Where more than one individual is contacted regarding a case of suspected malpractice, for example in a case involving suspected collusion, we will contact each individual separately, and will not reveal personal data to any third party unless necessary for the purpose of the investigation.

6.5. The individual has a right to appeal against a malpractice outcome if they believe that the policy or procedure has not been followed properly or has been implemented to their detriment.

6.6. Records of all malpractice cases and their outcomes are maintained by Discovery Education for a period of at least five years, and are subject to regular monitoring and review.
