President's Message

So enjoyed visiting and learning more about a few of our members last month. Thank you Robyn for making an enjoyable afternoon. Hope everyone is surviving the heat and able to get a some quilting done. I had a great class on my long arm in Yelm, Washington. I learned a lot both before class and during and looking forward to "playing".

Looks like this month program will be inspirational. Looking forward to it. Hope you can join us.

Peggy

“We are the Champions”

Celebrating the United States in the 2024 Paris Summer Olympics

August 29 to September 1

We're all set for retreat and everybody is paid up! In a week or so directions to the retreat center, a reminder of what to bring, and shop hop ideas for Temecula will be sent out. Please do not arrive at the retreat center before 4:30. We were told we cannot get into the classroom until 3:00 pm to set up, so it is a bit of rush for the retreat committee. Don't forget your 3 fat quarters!

The retreat will begin Thursday August 29 at 4:30pm. Dinner will be served at 5:00 pm. Besides Thursday evening we'll have all day Friday and Saturday and Sunday morning to sew. The retreat is over at 2:00 PM Sunday.

So get your Red, White and Blue on and lets celebrate all our USA Olympic Champions.

August Program -

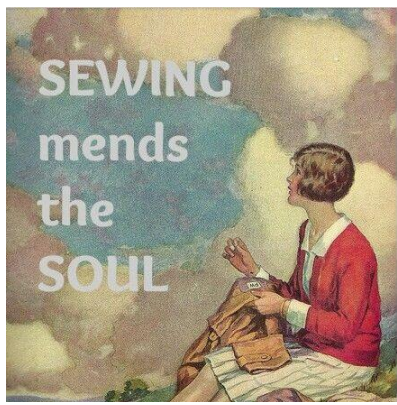

I hope all of you enjoyed our game day and met some new people. I know some of you won enough strips to make a quilt which I hope you will share! If anyone has any suggestions for future speakers or workshops please feel free to email or call me.

This month we have Susan Lazear, she is the creative director and owner of Cochenille Design, a company that produces software for the textile arts, and Professor of fashion at Mesa College. She has traveled extensively and will share her collection of textiles.

Workshop -

We have a few openings for the Storm at Sea workshop with Wendy Mathison. November 1st,$35. Signup at the next meeting. This is a great way to meet other guild members and learn new skills.

AUGUST 2024 PHILANTHROPY

I hope you are all having a lemonade-and-watermelon type of summer! Sorry I missed you all at our July meeting - I heard that it was a lot of fun.

If you want to join us on Tuesday August 27, 9-2, for a Philanthropy quilt kit making party, send me an email. There are a couple of spaces left. I'll send you the information and what to bring. This is a great way to get to know other members and have fun! 😊

My activities this past month have expanded beyond quilting. I have been doing some traveling, seeing the country - it has been great! First, we spent a week at the YMCA camp at Sequoia Lake - where we stayed in a cute rustic cabin in the pines, in view of the beautiful lake. My husband went rowing across the lake each morning - I actually got up early one morning and went with him 😊 We enjoyed a hike up to a waterfall with many wildflowers in bloom along the way, and campfire programs at night. After a relaxing week, we rushed home, met our son, hooked up the vintage 1955 Aljoa trailer that has been living in our driveway and drove across the country to Michigan, to where the trailer will now live at our son's house. It took 6 days, due to a back wheel flying off the truck, east of Las Vegas....but that's another story. Driving through the red desert country of Utah, the green mountains of Colorado and the cornfields of Nebraska and Iowa was wonderful. We live in a beautiful country!

Since I have been traveling, I don't have photos of the philanthropy quilts that were donated at the last meeting, yet - so no photos this month. Double photos next month! Thanks to everyone who donated a quilt.

Keep those sewing machines whirling! See you at the August meeting!!!
