TRI-PARISH NEWS

An Invitation to CWL Bookclub 2026

How many times have you attended Mass and wished it had more fully touched your heart? All too often, Mass feels like a missed opportunity for grace. To pray fruitfully from the heart is a gift of grace. The biblical way of praying the Holy Mass is a means to dispose your soul to receive this grace by focusing on engaging the heart by adopting the sentiments of specific biblical figures during different parts of the Mass.

Our St. Maria Goretti Parish CWL is sponsoring a book study of "A Biblical Way of Praying the Mass: The Eucharistic Wisdom of Venerable Bruno Lanteri" by Father Timothy Gallagher.

It's available to purchase at Chapters/Indigo and Amazon @ $20.95; Kindle Edition @$9.99.

ALL PARISHIONERS ARE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE

Wednesday February 11 at 4:00 PM at the church.

To signup please email or call Pat March by February 9th

The Call to Beatitude

The Beatitudes call us to the heights of morality and holiness. Those who live according to these divine precepts are blessed beyond measure. The promises to those who live this high calling are great: They become children of God and inherit the Kingdom of Heaven. Furthermore, they receive comfort, satisfaction, mercy, purity, and peace. Though the rewards are great, so are the requirements: spiritual poverty, holy sorrow, meekness, longing for righteousness, a merciful heart, purity, peacemaking, and patient endurance during persecution.

The Beatitudes reveal the culmination of God's moral teaching and the highest revelation of the Christian life. To fully appreciate their significance, it is helpful to understand the history of moral revelation. Doing so is more than a history lesson on God's deepening revelation, it also reveals the path for our spiritual journey toward perfection.

The Beatitudes elevate all laws of the Old Covenant. Jesus not only calls us to profound holiness, He also provides the means to achieve it through His Sacrifice, transmitted through the grace of the Sacraments. To live the Beatitudes is to live in imitation of Christ, who perfectly embodied all virtues in His life, Passion, and Resurrection. Hence, the Beatitudes are not only a moral code we must follow, they are a participation in and union with the Son of God, Who lived the Beatitudes to perfection.

As we ponder the Beatitudes, reflect today on their high and glorious calling, as well as their rewards. Sometimes, reading the Beatitudes can leave us discouraged, as we are aware of how far we are away from perfecting them. Dispel discouragement and know that these new divine precepts are attainable by grace. Set your eyes on the heights of perfection and open yourself to the abundant grace offered. Doing so will not only result in glorious spiritual rewards in this life, it will also result in the greatest eternal rewards in Heaven. (mycatholiclife.com)
