Dear brothers & sisters in Christ, Greetings and God's blessings.

We are at a difficult period of time in history. Probably no one in the present or past generations has ever experienced before such a difficult and fearful situation where not just one country but the entire world has come to a standstill. Certainly this is a time of great anxiety and uncertainty. But we are Christians; we are people of hope and more importantly, we are already saved by the precious blood of Christ offered on the cross on Calvary.

St. Paul says: "Rejoice in hope, endure in afflictions, persevere in prayer." (Romans 12:12).

So, let us encourage each other in and through prayer, remaining steadfast in our faith in the Lord and relying upon God's mercy.

At this difficult time, I encourage everyone to remain in touch with each other and reach out to each other in safe ways, probably through a phone call or text message; check-in with the elderly and those who are living alone in your area.

As for me, I continue to offer daily mass for the scheduled intentions and especially praying for you, my dear parishioners, and for the entire world.

Our secretary, Roger, and myself follow our normal office hours and continue to be available to everyone.

If anyone is in great need of anything and unable to get help, kindly call the parish office at 780-987-2858 and we will reach out to you.

In case of an emergency, do not hesitate to call me at my cell phone – 1(306)-830-2749. Let us continue to pray, support and encourage each other to remain steadfast in our faith. May the Lord bless us all and keep us in His love & care.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Arun
