The Dead Will Rise

“That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called ‘Lord,’ the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.” Luke 20:37-38

As we draw close to the end of this Church year, our readings begin to focus more clearly upon the final things to come. The following is an excerpt from My Catholic Faith! Chapter 5, regarding the resurrection of the dead:

The third and final coming is when Jesus returns to Earth in splendor and glory. It will be “the end of the world as we know it.” It will be a time when His permanent Kingdom is established. There is much to say about this moment in history and it is actually quite fascinating to reflect upon.

The Catechism also states:

When he comes at the end of time to judge the living and the dead, the glorious Christ will reveal the secret disposition of hearts and will render to each man according to his works and according to his acceptance or refusal of grace. (#682)

This is a fascinating thought, and a bit scary, too! It means that all that is hidden will come to light. This can be good or bad depending upon what is hidden. The thought should both fill us with a bit of holy fear, and it should also fill us with a holy joy. The holy fear is actually a gift from God to help us eliminate any secret and hidden sin we have now or have struggled with in the past. Since it will in fact all come to light one day, we might as well deal with it now so that our sin is no more. If we do, even our sin is turned into virtue and grace. And then, at the end of time, that grace and virtue is what will be made manifest. This manifestation of our virtue will be the cause of holy joy not only for us but also for others to whom it is manifested.

We will be judged, then, based on what is there within our conscience. It will no longer just be exterior. We will not be able to put on a good face and pretend we are someone we are not. The full truth will come out and will be made manifest for all to see in accord with God’s plan.

Lord, may I always be ready to greet You when You come. I thank You for Your perfect promise of raising all from the dead and bringing forth new life. Use me to gather many into this future and glorious Kingdom, dear Lord. Jesus, I trust in You. (mycatholiclife.com)

No Masses - Tuesday November 8, Wednesday November 9 & Thursday November 10

There will be no Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday Masses this coming week. Fr. Luan is attending the Mid- term Assembly of Clergy in Edmonton from Tuesday November 8 to Thursday November 10. The Mass Intentions for those days will be offered at Providence Renewal Center. Friday morning Mass is at 9:00 am as usual in Devon.

CWL - You are invited to Join!

November is membership month for the Devon Catholic Women's League. All ladies are invited to join the council and help serve the parish and community. For more information please contact Nicole Howrish.- Membership chairperson or , AnnaBelle McMillan - President.

Sick? Shut-in?
