

"Ian has undertaken two decorating jobs for us, the latest being the hall, stairs and landing. We are delighted with the work he has done which is to a very high standard. He is very organised and tidy, clearing up each evening and is a pleasure to have in the house. We have already booked him to decorate another room, in the New Year!"

"Ian has just recently completed the painting of the perimeter fencing around our bungalow. He gave the fencing two good coats and has transformed the fencing so much that it makes the whole property look much fresher and almost like new. He was a pleasure to deal with and a thoroughly nice guy as well. I have no hesitation in recommending Ian and would not go anywhere else in the future if we need anything else done on our property."

"Ian's recent job for us, which was painting our 3 level hall, stairs & landing, including a phenomenal number of spindles (!) was completed from start to finish in less than 10 days. Throughout the job, Ian was unfailingly considerate, well-prepared & organised; he is conscientious & extremely professional. This is the second time that Ian has done some decorating for us ... we would unreservedly recommend him to others & plan to use his services again in the future."

As well as quality decorative work we like the fact that he is spot-on with time-keeping, always cheerful and clears up after work! Previously Ian also painted the outside windows and doors (wood) and this was also a thoroughly professional job. Definitely, recommend!"

"I recently needed to engage a painter and decorator and how glad I was to engage the help of Ian Linford for this task. His workmanship was as skilled as any that I have come across and his care to detail was exceptional. Every day at the completion of what he did was followed by his cleaning and tidying which was helpful.

He was polite and encouraging all the time he was with me and nothing was too much trouble. I have no hesitation in recommending him to anyone who requires his skills"

"Mr Ian Linford has successfully worked for me; painting various (intricately) detailed rooms, bathrooms and hallways. He is a gifted expert painter of the 'Old School' type who pays absolute attention to detail and demands the very high standard of himself. From preparation to completion, one can only admire the way he makes his skills look effortless. He communicates affably, is reliable and importantly, utterly trustworthy. His working practice is tidy and he leaves no mess. I would not hesitate to employ him again; indeed I would recommend him to repaint 'Nelson's Cabin' in HMS Victory if it were so requested."
