

VP Corner

I'm so excited to kick off our brand-new FRWC newsletter! Each issue, I'll share a little note from me, but I'd love for this newsletter to also reflect your voices. If you have an article idea, a story from the campaign trail, or even just a favorite photo, please feel free to send it in. Big or small—every contribution adds something special.

As we head into this busy fall season, there's a lot buzzing in our community and beyond—from upcoming local events that bring us together to some real wins for Republicans at the state and national levels. I know times can feel challenging, but it's moments like these that remind us why we fight for our values: freedom, family, and a stronger America. Let's keep supporting each other and getting involved—your energy makes all the difference!

Thank you for showing up, volunteering, and encouraging one another.

Let's keep the energy going strong—together!

"The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." — Eleanor Roosevelt

Patriotic Reflection

As we pause to remember the lives lost and the heroes who stepped forward on September 11, 2001. We honor the courage of first responders, the strength of families who carried on, and the resilience of a nation that refused to be broken. September 11 reminds us that freedom is never free—it is defended daily by brave men and women at home and abroad.

As we move forward, let's carry the same unity and patriotism we felt in those days after the attacks. May we never forget, and may we always stand strong together as Americans.

"If we learn nothing else from this tragedy, we learn that life is short and there is no time for hate." — Sandy Dahl, wife of Flight 93 pilot Jason Dahl

Survey: Help Us Name the Newsletter — Reply with Your Favorite!

Mark Your Calendar

- Thu, Sept 11 • Cumberland County GOP Meet & Greet —Candidate Resource Center (304 Owen Dr). Check the CCGOP Facebook page for the time.
- Sun, Sept 14 • Mayoral Debate — 2:00 PM • Seabrook Auditorium (FSU).
- Sept 26–28 • Faith & Freedom “Salt & Light”(Marion,NC) Mention promo code NCGOP for 35% off. Source: Cabarrus GOP email.
- Tue, Sept 30 • CCGOP Executive Committee Meeting — 6:00 PM • Massey Hill Lions Center.
- Tue, Oct 7, 2025 • FRWC Meeting — 6:00 PM • Logan’s Roadhouse.

Local Spotlight

The state Board of Elections approved three early voting sites for the upcoming November general—Cliffdale Recreation Center, Kiwanis Recreation Center, and the Board of Elections office itself—which means easier access for folks to make their voices heard. This is a win for voter turnout in our neck of the woods!

Locally, we're spotlighting the growth around Fort Bragg, which continues to drive jobs and economic stability for our families. If you're a military spouse or veteran in the club, let's chat about how we can amplify those stories—our roots here are what make Fayetteville special.

On the flip side, keep an eye on Democrat-led efforts in the city council races heating up for 2025. With so many Democratic candidates seeking election and a crowded field including some progressive voices, their push for things like expanded public funding for elections could shift priorities away from fiscal responsibility. It might affect our community by increasing taxes or diluting conservative influence—something we'll watch closely to protect our local values.

Watch List

Gail Morfesis—our very own FRWC President—is on the ballot for Fayetteville City Council, District 2. She’s a familiar face at community forums and local media spots, sharing practical ideas and listening to neighbors—you may have seen her featured on Fayetteville City News and speaking at downtown meetings. Beyond politics, Gail’s a longtime arts advocate and vocalist who’s been active in Fayetteville’s cultural scene.

Please keep two of our dear members in your prayers.

Eleanor McGinnis is in the hospital at St. Joseph in Pinehurst. Let’s surround her with love and encouragement as she heals.

Lois Croxton recently had surgery and is recovering. We’re cheering for a smooth, steady recovery and look forward to seeing her soon.

Our Members Special Dates

Please share your special dates with us! Email laurafrcw@gmail.com to be included in future issues.