

Up & coming this 2024.

The year is filled with excitement as Wokini prepares for new life and new possibilities. We are hosting some fun workshops and our first annual healing festival this year.

Get in touch for details and book your spot to join the fun.

March 2024.

15th March

Wooden Aframe workshop

3 Days, learning the fundamentals. Building a deck platform, putting up the structure and installing the door and windows. Finishing touches workshop to follow.

April 2024.

27th April

Natural dye workshop especially planned for moms. This 3 hour workshop lets you unwind, have fun and learn something new while your little is taken care of. Let them play with natural colours while our amazing teacher keeps them occupied, you get to unwind.

May 2024.

2nd May

This 4 day workshop you can learn how to identify and mix clay and how to use this to create beautiful natural plaster for your building. Learn about the magic of working with lime plaster and get creative with some carving or moulding.

June 2024.

29th June

3 hours of pottery fun to unwind and get creative with your moulding and sculpting. Bring the little along while the teacher does pottery with the little ones giving us mummies a much needed me time.

July 2024.

5th July

Wooden A-frame Weekend Workshop

Learn the finishing touches on how to build an A-frame using natural resources. This includes the Cladding, insulation and floor. Workshop includes digital manual and refreshments.

August 2024.

Wokini is taking down time while we welcome our new family member little Kai Joubert.

September 2024.

28th Septemebr

Join us for this fun 3 hour weaving workshop made for mummies who need some creative down time. Like all our mommy workshops there is an amazing qualified care giver to keep the little ones busy.

October 2024.

Annual healing festival! 1 week of movement, mindful practice, music and connection.

Wokini also hosts the Adventure Coaching Program for the month of October - November.