

Guidance for Writing Behavioral Learning Objectives

There are key components of well-written behavioral learning objectives that – when incorporated – allow for an optimal, articulated experience for learners. Consider using the below checklist when developing your objectives.

| A | 1 | | 1 | • | • |
|-------------|-------|--------|------|------|----------|
| Are my | v lea | rnıng | nh. | 1ec1 | ives |
| 7 11 C 1111 | y icu | 111111 | , 00 | | 11 4 00. |

| • | □ observable and measurable (i.e., use action verbs that describe measurable behaviors)? |
|---|--|
| • | □ statements that clearly describe what the learner will know or be able to do as a result of having |
| | attended an educational program or activity? |

focused on the learner?

| • \Box appropriate in breadth (not too few or too many – e.g., 3-4 objectives for a four-hour progr | i-noui program). | Tour-nour pro | ior a lour- | ojecuves ic | - e.g., 3-4 or | or too many | o iew i | (not too | i oreauth | appropriate in | , [|

|---|------------------|---------------|-------------|-------------|----------------|-------------|----------------|----------|-----------|----------------|-----|

- \Box sufficient in depth (at the postdoctoral level for psychologists and clearly articulated e.g., does the whole of the objective make sense and is it appropriate for CE)?
- □ fully linked to: (a) the program narrative, (b) adequate references that support content, & (c) are listed on promotional materials?

☐ Example of well-written learning objectives for a 4-hour CE session on hypnosis and pain:

At the end of this workshop, the learner will be able to:

- 1. Describe 3 key aspects of basic hypnosis theory and technique;
- 2. Explain differences between demonstrations of hypnotic technique and phenomena;
- 3. Identify 2 differences between acute and chronic pain; and
- 4. Demonstrate effective use of hypnosis in controlling acute pain.
