

Description

Course Outline for 6/13/19:

- Why Talk About Hoarding?
- What Hoarding Is & Is Not
- How to Approach the People & the Situations
- Tools & Methods
- Resources & Connections
- Q&A

Overview

During the workshop we will:

- Share about WHY we need to be having conversations about the issue of hoarding.
- Talk specifically about what hoarding is and some of the misconceptions surrounding this issue.
- Discuss some different ways and methods of approaching the people in the hoarding situation using the "Harm Reduction" approach and introducing the concept of a "Safety Day."
- Review and discuss a couple of different forms that are useful when determining the safety needs in the situation and using that as a starting point and understanding the leverage needed for change.
- Share available resources and ways to stay connected when dealing with hoarding situations.
- Have time for Q&A time as that is often where many good conversations and ah-ha moments occur on this topic.

Learning Outcomes

- A better understanding of the issue of hoarding.
- How to utilize the harm reduction and safety day options.
- Actionable ideas to use right away in these situations.
- Knowing that you are NOT ALONE and that other people understand this complicated issue.
