For the purposes of this parenting plan, if the Non-Custodial Parent exercises visitation during the School Year on a weekend in which there is a Friday and/or Monday school holiday which immediately precedes and/or follows his weekend visitation, Non-Custodial Parent’s visitation shall include that Friday and/or Monday school holiday (“Holiday Extension”). For the purposes of this paragraph, a “school holiday” includes a teacher work day or other day in which students are not required to attend school and which is announced by the applicable school system before the end of the Non-Custodial Parent’s normal weekend visitation. However, this Holiday Extension is only applicable to the schedule of visitation for the School Year and only applies to Friday and/or Monday. Each parent shall have access to the child(ren)'s grades from school, as well as a schedule of the child(ren)'s curricular and extracurricular events, so that each parent shall be permitted and enabled to fully participate in all aspects of the life/lives of the child(ren) without first seeking the permission or input of the other parent. Each parent shall provide the other parent with all such schedules of curricular and extracurricular events or activities which are not reasonably available to the other parent. Each parent will inform the other of events and activities involving the child(ren) so that each parent will have an opportunity to attend if he/she so desires. Designation as a Non-Custodial Parent does not affect a parent's right to equal access to records and information.

The Custodial Parent shall ensure that the Non-Custodial Parent is listed as the first emergency contact on the child(ren)'s school or day care records if the Custodial Parent cannot be reached.

IX. MODIFICATION OF PLAN OR DISAGREEMENTS
