21st UFCCM Annual Conference

Ecumenical Patriarch and First Lady Henry A. Tindal, Sr.

What a privilege it is to be able to welcome each of you to the 21st Annual UFCCM Conference. We greet you in the name of our Lord Jesus, the Christ of God. From the words of the Negro National Anthem, I borrow this line, "Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us..." Truly we have much for which we give God Glory. We had to overcome many challenges to be able to assemble here in Milwaukee but look what the Lord has done.

It is with great joy that we say to each of you, WELCOME to this 21st Annual UFCCM Conference. We anticipate a mighty move of the Holy Spirit during this conference, and we pray that you will leave refreshed, inspired, invigorated, encouraged and with an even greater determination than ever to continue on in the word, will and way of the Lord. Let's keep hope alive, which is described in Hebrews 6:19 this way: "Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil."

Always walking by faith and enduring hope we remain,

In Christ's Love,

++Henry A. Tindal, Sr., UFCCM Ecumenical Patriarch

Bishop Shirley A. Tindal,

Chairlady, UFCCM Annual Planning Committee

Welcome to the 21st Annual Conference of the United Fellowship of Christian Churches and Ministries! How glorious and pleasant it is for us to dwell together and to come into the house of the Lord. On behalf of the entire UFCCM Planning Committee and the Midwest Planning Team, we would like to express our sincere gratitude and thanks to the Most High God, our Lord, and Savior Jesus Christ. We want to thank our Ecumenical Patriarch, the entire Board of Bishops, our conference speakers, and all participants who have so readily consented to be an active part of this wonderful conference! In Christ's Love,

+Shirley A. Tindal

Secretary General of the UFCCM

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

NOTES AND REFLECTIONS:

Closing Thoughts,

We praise the Lord for this moment to say THANK YOU to all who have worked so hard to make this Annual Conference a great success. We continue in prayer that the “Blessings of the Lord” remain upon the entire UFCCM. We pray traveling mercies upon all of you who have traveled from both near and far.

Thanks to all our beloved Ordinaries of the Episcopal Board of Bishops for your prayers, unwavering support, and Godly council.

We applaud our Secretary General, First Lady of the UFCCM, Mother Bishop Shirley A. Tindal who has worked tirelessly as the Chairlady of the UFCCM Official Conference Planning Committee.

To all the members of the UFCCM Conference Planning Committee for your prayers, sacrifices and numerous contributions of your time, talents, and ideas, all of which have helped to make this conference a great success and memorable occasion.

We pray blessings upon all Affiliates, Bishops, Overseers, Elders, Pastors, Jurisdictional Officials, lay members and all others.

To all of you who have given of yourselves in services as seminar leaders, speakers, ushers, pulpit attendants, financiers, and others in the “Ministry of Helps,” we extend our heartfelt thanks.

Please visit the UFCCM website, www.UFCCM.org, designed and maintained by our own UFCCM Webmaster and Chairman of Communications, Bishop H. D. Haywood, for exciting footage from this Conference as well as for information about the Episcopal Board of Bishops Conclave and other events.

Please follow us on Facebook for information about Jurisdictional Convocations and other rewarding UFCCM activities planned for the coming year.
