Notes 15th August 2002, Chris died a few days before this CC appeared, I remember that we his family had problems finding out where the private ambulance had taken his body, he ended up in RMI Sarum Road Hospital Winchester. Chris being a firm Celtic Pagan would have headed for the old Roman Sarum Road west of Winchester (old roads no longer used by the living where spirits can travel unhindered by the physical energies) The importance of Winchester is Abbotstone Down area where the BGSI (Bilrost Guide Slope Indicator) centre ground is located north east of the Planetarium https://www.winchestersciencecentre.org/ It starts at St. Michaels (Boars Isle) in Kent and travels west to the top of Trisunke Quarry, Wills Neck (Bretons Fdy) in Somerset. This is why you will mainly find genuine CC's close by to ancient monuments. At the time of his unexpected death I remember praying to Hathor to intercept him on his transcendence into the spiritual realm and my family insisted that I continue with my planned holiday to Corfu departing the 18th August 2002. I remember requesting a sign for if they managed to collect him to align the sign with where I was living at that time. While I was away in Corfu my family picked up from where I left off before I was convinced to leave it to them and go and enjoy my family holiday with my wife and step kids as I was at first the only one holding it all together emotionally, that was the worst holiday of my life. In life Chris was an artist who specialised in silk screen printing and strip shading like the CC and was also partially responsible for the metal orb too lighter drawing that was sent to the MoD at either Foxhill, Warminster Rd or Lansdown in Bath in 1992 drawn onto the rear of an aerospace technical log page. Maybe that's why they took it seriously, however; we didn't as it was a practical joke which made us chuckle as we posted it into the letter box next to the shop in Downside Rd. The Carbwood CC does in fact align with where I lived in Yate in 2002. When I saw the image for the first time I chuckled to myself quietly but wouldn't disclose the info at that time as it could have been just a coincidence not wishing to make a complete prat of myself in the process. Only after a mere 24 years of contemplating a repeat in coincidences do I come forth to share my experiences after having to firstly eliminate Dene I line from the equation as he had laid claim to the second alignment and then it was just a case of waiting for the right moment to share the experience to which I feel is about now. Chris carried the same family name as I do, well he was my biological brother and that name has the meaning of Grey, as in Grey Hairred, depicting a tribal elder, wisdom and knowledge and that is why I call this CC "Christopher Michael the Grey".

Dene Hine laid claim to it 5 months later and was amazed when i pointed out to him that it is in direct alignment and said things get copied all the time.
