

Things to know about a retreat at Priest Field:

Things to Bring:

- Your sewing machine's operating manual
- The foot pedal and electrical cord for your machine
- An extension cord
- Sew-ezi table and/or your own chair (if you have either of these items)
- A cushion to enhance the comfort of the sewing room chair provided
- A small iron and cutting mat for your personal workspace (2 ironing boards and regular irons will be available)
- Basics: Scissors, threads, bobbins, specialty rulers, patterns/fabric, fabric markers, seam rippers, fabric marking chalk/pens, etc.
- A portable design wall
- Chargers for Phone/tablet/laptop
- Earphones for listening to music
- Walking shoes (if you like to walk/hike)
- "Magic Sliders" (not felt) to put on the bottoms of your sewing room chairs' legs so the chair slides easily on the carpet—about a 2" diameter will work—removable and reusable
- Some ladies like to bring a cozy quilt for their bed!
- A good book.
- Hand sewing project(s)
- A sweater and/or a cozy sweatshirt or two!
- Slippers or socks for the sewing room
- Your favorite ceramic or insulated mug
- An umbrella

See the inventory of the "Dragon Box" which contains lots of donated sewing items that you can use. Other info about Priest Field is shared there.

Snack Table:

Optional: You can bring a non-perishable snack to share with our group of 16.

For example: fruit, nuts, candy, chocolate, crackers, cookies, cake, pie, chips, pretzels, popcorn, canned drinks, etc. Though we have meals, everyone loves to graze throughout the day and evening. If what you bring needs paper plates, cups, napkins, bring some along.

Coffee and hot tea are available all day in the dining room.

Meal Schedules

	Breakfast 8:00	Lunch 12:00	Dinner 6:00
Thursday			X
Friday	X	X	X
Saturday	X	X	X
Sunday	X

On Thursday, pack a lunch or stop for something along the way . . . our first included meal will be dinner.

As you pass through Kearneysville, WV, there are a few small and fast food restaurants available where you can purchase lunch. Check the particulars on-line.

Check In:

Arrival time on Thursday is 8:00 am or later!

There are parking spaces in front of retreat center. Look for wagons/carts to help move your things from your vehicle into the sewing room/sleeping areas. You may have to wait a few minutes for an empty wagon/cart.

Check in at the front desk to get your room keys.

Move your sewing things inside to the sewing room and your personal things to your rooms. As soon as you can, put the wagon/cart back and move your vehicle to a designated parking space/area.

Check Out:

Check out time on Sunday is by 12:00.
