

DENNIS ALFEIRI

Formerly, Managing Member of Mission Real Estate Group, LLC and Co-Founder of Bantry Property Services, LLC, a commercial construction and project management firm. Clients included Bantry Holdings, Guggenheim Real Estate, Fiduciary Trust International of California, and St. Vincent Medical Center. Served as Partner at Oak Knoll Group, Inc., Pasadena, with projects such as Toyota Speedway of Irwindale, Twin Palms Restaurants, Regency Court Senior Apartments, and Huntington Crossings Retail Center.

Mr. Alfieri has held various roles in both public and private sectors. Current Commissioner of the California Horse Racing Board, appointed by Governors Jerry Brown and Gavin Newsom. Previously appointed by Governor George Deukmejian to California Housing Partnership Corporation, also served on the California Earthquake Authority, Small Business Bond Insurance Corporation, United States Commission of Presidential Scholars, and The White House Conference on Small Business under President Ronald Reagan.

Volunteering includes membership on the Board of Trustees for the Children's Burn Foundation, former member of the Methodist Hospital Foundation, 42-year member of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association, and involvement with several other organizations including the Greater L.A. Zoo Association, Museum of Science and Industry Foundation, Crown City Club, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Garibaldina Society, and religious orders.

Holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Southern California (1981), School of Public Administration.

Born and residing in Pasadena, Mr. Alfieri has four children: Alexis, Austin, Avery, and Winston.