WORDS OF WISDOM.

Spring is here again and everything is changing and becoming new again. Looking back I wonder where the last 10 months have gone .We must all face the fact that time keeps marching on and where you and I are concerned , life is measured by time.

Life is always in the “ present”

Some people live in the past while others live for the future. Life only exists in the “present” defined as A moment or period in time intermediate between past and future; Now did you get it? Only a Moment of time!

Life is always marked in segments.100 years is a century- 10 years is a decade 12 months or 365 make a year and so on. The only way we can number our days is live one day at a time and apply our our hearts to that day In fact , today is the only day we can rejoice and be glad or groan and be sad - it is our choice..

Life is just on loan. I own nothing . Everything I have is just on loan. The people who were struck by the Tsunami that hit the Pacific woke that morning unaware that a mass of water was racing towards them at almost 600 kilometers an hour. One moment they thought that the life they had was theirs, the next moment they were swept away. The life you have is just on loan to you . What are you doing with it?.

Life is a one way street. You only have one life to prepare for eternity. If you had two or three years you might be careless about the way you lived the one you have, but you have only this one in which to prepare. Life is a one way street it is not a merryground and often the greatest tragedy of humanity is that we put off living now!

Life is always changing . Sometimes it changes so slowly we don't notice, then one day we look in the mirror and realize – it is changing . Everything is always changing the only factor in this world is the fact that there is nothing constant so as we enjoy the new life that spring brings that we see in nature, we need to remember that life is in the living of it! GOD tells us to live life richly and fully for him, for others and for ourselves. It is new every morning as in fact we are new every morning. So lets look at the rich tapestry GOD created in spring and consciously decide to be part of the same creation by living our lives fully starting right now.

Funnies. I'm going to have Himalayan soup tonight. I found Himlayan on the road.

I dusted once , it came back I'm not falling for that again.

If I made someone smile today my day hasn't been wasted.

Thanks Bill S.
