CONFESSION SCHEDULE

Fr. Martin is available to hear confession immediately before and after each Divine Liturgy.

WELCOME!

We welcome our guests and visitors, and are happy to have them join us in prayer. If you have not officially registered in the parish, and would like to, please speak with Fred.

REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS Please continue to remember in our prayers all the needs of the parish family, the sick and suffering, those who have asked for our prayers, especially Frantisek Vavrak, George Stojkovic, Joseph Fedyszak, Helena Hukova, Mateo Stojkovic, Serena Bravo, Stella Bravo, and Laura McKenzie. Let us remember the priests and bishops of the Catholic Church, those people who have been denied their basic human rights and dignity, the oppressed, the lonely, the homeless and those who suffer, and those who have no peace of mind or heart. Please contact Fred to have a name added or removed.

Announcements & Reminders

Pastoral Message

Dear parishioners, Christ is Risen!

For forty days after His resurrection from the dead, the Risen Lord appeared to His chosen apostles and to many believers. On the fortieth day, on the Mount of Olives, the Lord ascended into the heavens. In the icon depicting this event, we sense the joy of those present - the Mother of God and the Apostles. Christ is seen ascending in glory surrounded by a circular multi-colored nimbus, supported by angels. The presence of the angels is but another indication of the divinity of the Lord, Jesus Christ. Cod in the Old Testament was depicted as enthroned upon the Cherubim. The Mother of God is in the center and directly below Her Son. The Apostles are on both sides of the Mother of God. The scene of the Mother of God with the Apostles will also be for another important event - Pentecost, the Descent of the Holy Spirit. Jesus ascended amidst the peals of the trumpets. Joy for the victory of the Lord God. Joy for His Resurrection and return to heaven. He is in heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father and will one day return to the earth - come again to judge both the living and the dead. The good and faithful disciple will be then rewarded with eternal life with the Lord God.

In Christ,
Fr. Martin Vavrak - Administrator
