SAT. Nov. 26 11:00 a.m. 25th Sunday after Pentecost

Directives for COVID 19 safety. These Directives must be strictly followed. Please make note of the following Directives which have already been placed in previous bulletins: Keep distancing in the pews now that there are no barriers. Do not kiss the icons. Respect for each other and the safety for each other is absolutely important.

O Lord our God, bless and strengthen our soldiers, police, medical and fire responders. Grant them a heart of courage. Save, defend, protect, purify and fill them with spiritual joy. Be the protector of their souls and bodies

No confessions on Saturday

“Whatever you ask for in prayer with faith, you will receive.”
Mt. 21:22

Please remember in your prayers the sick and suffering of the parish, their relatives and friends especially George Stojkovic, Joseph Fedyszak and Suzanne Opalka. May God hear our prayers, heal them and grant them many happy years.

Please make note that if a priest or Deacon from the Diocese cannot be present for any assigned Service, that service will not take place and not rescheduled

Two weeks ago we had Liturgy in order to accommodate parishioners because of a cancellation of Liturgy the week before, but it appears people were told we were not having Liturgy. Parishioners with e-mail addresses were notified of the schedule change, and those without e-mail were called and verbally advised. Additionally, the Liturgy schedule on the website was immediately updated, and is always updated for your information and convenience. If you wish to get the correct information, please use the website or contact Fred or myself to get it. It may not be wise to depend on parishioner information. To alleviate any confusion from now on, when the schedule is made, it will be followed without change regardless if a Liturgy is canceled. This will make things much easier to follow for us.

Please make note that there will be a Christmas Liturgy celebrated on December 24th at 11:00 a.m.

On December 3, 2022, we will be having another Flea-Market. Please mark this date and be sure to patronize the event. Money is of essence right now and your presence at the Flea-Market or especially your help to run it will be greatly appreciated.
