CONFESSION SCHEDULE

Fr. Martin is available to hear confession immediately before and after each Divine Liturgy.

WELCOME!

We welcome our guests and visitors, and are happy to have them join us in prayer. If you have not officially registered in the parish, and would like to, please speak with Fred.

REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS Please continue to remember in our prayers all the needs of the parish family, the sick and suffering, those who have asked for our prayers, especially Frantisek Vavrak, George Stojkovic, Helena Hukova, Mateo Stojkovic, Serena Bravo, Stella Bravo, Gabriela Machado, and Laura McKenzie. Let us remember the priests and bishops of the Catholic Church, those people who have been denied their basic human rights and dignity, the oppressed, the lonely, the homeless and those who suffer, and those who have no peace of mind or heart. Please contact Fred to have a name added or removed.

Please continue to keep George Stojkovic in your prayers, especially this coming Friday, July 25, as he undergoes surgery. Let us also pray for the Marajh family, as they embark on a new chapter in their lives. May God grant to his servants, George, Rodger and Wendy, many blessed years!

Pastoral Message

Dear Friends, Glory to Jesus Christ!

Saint Elias the Prophet – A Flame of Zeal for God

On July 20th, the Church celebrates the holy and glorious Prophet Elias, known in the West as Elijah, one of the greatest and most fiery figures in the history of God’s people. Born in Thisbe (Thesbe) of Gilead, beyond the Jordan, St. Elias came from priestly lineage and lived a life of profound asceticism and solitude. Clothed in a mantle of sheepskin and girded with a leather belt, he walked the earth as a living testimony of faith, courage, and zeal.

His very name—Elias, meaning “The Lord is my God”—was a proclamation of his mission. Consumed by zeal for the true God in a time of rampant idolatry, he became a fearless prophet in the face of the wicked King Ahab and Queen Jezebel, denouncing their sins and calling the people back to righteousness. By his prayers, the heavens were shut, and no rain fell for three and a half years—a divine judgment meant to stir repentance. God sustained him in miraculous ways, feeding him through ravens by the brook of Horrath, and later through the generosity of a poor widow in Zarephath. To her, he not only multiplied her last handful of flour and oil but also raised her son from the dead, revealing the power of God working through him.

Perhaps the most dramatic moment in his life occurred on Mount Carmel, where Elias challenged the prophets of Baal. As all Israel watched, fire from heaven consumed his offering, proving that the Lord alone is God. Afterward, he slew the 450 false prophets, purging the land of corruption and false worship. Elias encountered God in the “still, small voice” on Mount Horeb, following a forty-day journey sustained by angelic bread—an early foreshadowing of the spiritual food we now receive in the Eucharist. He boldly foretold the downfall of Ahab’s dynasty and called out the wickedness of kings without fear. His earthly life ended not in death, but in a heavenly mystery: as he walked with his disciple Elisha, a fiery chariot appeared and took him up to the heavens in a whirlwind. He did not taste death but was translated alive, like Enoch before him, a living witness to the promise of life eternal.

St. Elias remains a towering symbol of prophetic courage, prayerful power, and unwavering commitment to God’s truth. His voice still echoes today—calling us to repentance, to faithfulness, and to a burning love for the Lord our God. Holy Prophet Elias, intercede for us!

In Christ,

Fr. Martin Vavrak - Administrator

His earthly life ended not in death, but in a heavenly mystery: as he walked with his disciple Elisha, a fiery chariot appeared and took him up to the heavens in a whirlwind. He did not taste death but was translated alive, like Enoch before him, a living witness to the promise of life eternal.

St. Elias remains a towering symbol of prophetic courage, prayerful power, and unwavering commitment to God’s truth. His voice still echoes today—calling us to repentance, to faithfulness, and to a burning love for the Lord our God. Holy Prophet Elias, intercede for us!

In Christ,

CONFESSION SCHEDULE

Fr. Martin is available to hear confession immediately before and after each Divine Liturgy.

WELCOME!

We welcome our guests and visitors, and are happy to have them join us in prayer. If you have not officially registered in the parish, and would like to, please speak with Fred.

REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS Please continue to remember in our prayers all the needs of the parish family, the sick and suffering, those who have asked for our prayers, especially Frantisek Vavrak, George Stojkovic, Helena Hukova, Mateo Stojkovic, Serena Bravo, Stella Bravo, Gabriela Machado, and Laura McKenzie. Let us remember the priests and bishops of the Catholic Church, those people who have been denied their basic human rights and dignity, the oppressed, the lonely, the homeless and those who suffer, and those who have no peace of mind or heart. Please contact Fred to have a name added or removed.

Please continue to keep George Stojkovic in your prayers, especially this coming Friday, July 25, as he undergoes surgery. Let us also pray for the Marajh family, as they embark on a new chapter in their lives. May God grant to his servants, George, Rodger and Wendy, many blessed years!

Dear Friends, Glory to Jesus Christ!

Saint Elias the Prophet – A Flame of Zeal for God

On July 20th, the Church celebrates the holy and glorious Prophet Elias, known in the West as Elijah, one of the greatest and most fiery figures in the history of God’s people. Born in Thisbe (Thesbe) of Gilead, beyond the Jordan, St. Elias came from priestly lineage and lived a life of profound asceticism and solitude. Clothed in a mantle of sheepskin and girded with a leather belt, he walked the earth as a living testimony of faith, courage, and zeal.

His very name—Elias, meaning “The Lord is my God”—was a proclamation of his mission. Consumed by zeal for the true God in a time of rampant idolatry, he became a fearless prophet in the face of the wicked King Ahab and Queen Jezebel, denouncing their sins and calling the people back to righteousness. By his prayers, the heavens were shut, and no rain fell for three and a half years—a divine judgment meant to stir repentance. God sustained him in miraculous ways, feeding him through ravens by the brook of Horrath, and later through the generosity of a poor widow in Zarephath. To her, he not only multiplied her last handful of flour and oil but also raised her son from the dead, revealing the power of God working through him.

Perhaps the most dramatic moment in his life occurred on Mount Carmel, where Elias challenged the prophets of Baal. As all Israel watched, fire from heaven consumed his offering, proving that the Lord alone is God. Afterward, he slew the 450 false prophets, purging the land of corruption and false worship. Elias encountered God in the “still, small voice” on Mount Horeb, following a forty-day journey sustained by angelic bread—an early foreshadowing of the spiritual food we now receive in the Eucharist. He boldly foretold the downfall of Ahab’s dynasty and called out the wickedness of kings without fear. His earthly life ended not in death, but in a heavenly mystery: as he walked with his disciple Elisha, a fiery chariot appeared and took him up to the heavens in a whirlwind. He did not taste death but was translated alive, like Enoch before him, a living witness to the promise of life eternal.

God sustained him in miraculous ways, feeding him through ravens by the brook of Horrath, and later through the generosity of a poor widow in Zarephath. To her, he not only multiplied her last handful of flour and oil but also raised her son from the dead, revealing the power of God working through him.

Perhaps the most dramatic moment in his life occurred on Mount Carmel, where Elias challenged the prophets of Baal. As all Israel watched, fire from heaven consumed his offering, proving that the Lord alone is God. Afterward, he slew the 450 false prophets, purging the land of corruption and false worship. Elias encountered God in the “still, small voice” on Mount Horeb, following a forty-day journey sustained by angelic bread—an early foreshadowing of the spiritual food we now receive in the Eucharist. He boldly foretold the downfall of Ahab’s dynasty and called out the wickedness of kings without fear. His earthly life ended not in death, but in a heavenly mystery: as he walked with his disciple Elisha, a fiery chariot appeared and took him up to the heavens in a whirlwind. He did not taste death but was translated alive, like Enoch before him, a living witness to the promise of life eternal.

St. Elias remains a towering symbol of prophetic courage, prayerful power, and unwavering commitment to God’s truth. His voice still echoes today—calling us to repentance, to faithfulness, and to a burning love for the Lord our God. Holy Prophet Elias, intercede for us!

In Christ,

CONFESSION SCHEDULE

Fr. Martin is available to hear confession immediately before and after each Divine Liturgy.

WELCOME!

We welcome our guests and visitors, and are happy to have them join us in prayer. If you have not officially registered in the parish, and would like to, please speak with Fred.

REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS Please continue to remember in our prayers all the needs of the parish family, the sick and suffering, those who have asked for our prayers, especially Frantisek Vavrak, George Stojkovic, Helena Hukova, Mateo Stojkovic, Serena Bravo, Stella Bravo, Gabriela Machado, and Laura McKenzie. Let us remember the priests and bishops of the Catholic Church, those people who have been denied their basic human rights and dignity, the oppressed, the lonely, the homeless and those who suffer, and those who have no peace of mind or heart. Please contact Fred to have a name added or removed.

Please continue to keep George Stojkovic in your prayers, especially this coming Friday, July 25, as he undergoes surgery. Let us also pray for the Marajh family, as they embark on a new chapter in their lives. May God grant to his servants, George, Rodger and Wendy, many blessed years!

Dear Friends, Glory to Jesus Christ!

Saint Elias the Prophet – A Flame of Zeal for God

On July 20th, the Church celebrates the holy and glorious Prophet Elias, known in the West as Elijah, one of the greatest and most fiery figures in the history of God’s people. Born in Thisbe (Thesbe) of Gilead, beyond the Jordan, St. Elias came from priestly lineage and lived a life of profound asceticism and solitude. Clothed in a mantle of sheepskin and girded with a leather belt, he walked the earth as a living testimony of faith, courage, and zeal.

His very name—Elias, meaning “The Lord is my God”—was a proclamation of his mission. Consumed by zeal for the true God in a time of rampant idolatry, he became a fearless prophet in the face of the wicked King Ahab and Queen Jezebel, denouncing their sins and calling the people back to righteousness. By his prayers, the heavens were shut, and no rain fell for three and a half years—a divine judgment meant to stir repentance. God sustained him in miraculous ways, feeding him through ravens by the brook of Horrath, and later through the generosity of a poor widow in Zarephath. To her, he not only multiplied her last handful of flour and oil but also raised her son from the dead, revealing the power of God working through him.

Born in Thisbe (Thesbe) of Gilead, beyond the Jordan, St. Elias came from priestly lineage and lived a life of profound asceticism and solitude. Clothed in a mantle of sheepskin and girded with a leather belt, he walked the earth as a living testimony of faith, courage, and zeal.

His very name—Elias, meaning “The Lord is my God”—was a proclamation of his mission. Consumed by zeal for the true God in a time of rampant idolatry, he became a fearless prophet in the face of the wicked King Ahab and Queen Jezebel, denouncing their sins and calling the people back to righteousness. By his prayers, the heavens were shut, and no rain fell for three and a half years—a divine judgment meant to stir repentance. God sustained him in miraculous ways, feeding him through ravens by the brook of Horrath, and later through the generosity of a poor widow in Zarephath. To her, he not only multiplied her last handful of flour and oil but also raised her son from the dead, revealing the power of God working through him.

Perhaps the most dramatic moment in his life occurred on Mount Carmel, where Elias challenged the prophets of Baal. As all Israel watched, fire from heaven consumed his offering, proving that the Lord alone is God. Afterward, he slew the 450 false prophets, purging the land of corruption and false worship. Elias encountered God in the “still, small voice” on Mount Horeb, following a forty-day journey sustained by angelic bread—an early foreshadowing of the spiritual food we now receive in the Eucharist. He boldly foretold the downfall of Ahab’s dynasty and called out the wickedness of kings without fear. His earthly life ended not in death, but in a heavenly mystery: as he walked with his disciple Elisha, a fiery chariot appeared and took him up to the heavens in a whirlwind. He did not taste death but was translated alive, like Enoch before him, a living witness to the promise of life eternal.

St. Elias remains a towering symbol of prophetic courage, prayerful power, and unwavering commitment to God’s truth. His voice still echoes today—calling us to repentance, to faithfulness, and to a burning love for the Lord our God. Holy Prophet Elias, intercede for us!

In Christ,

Fr. Martin Vavrak - Administrator

CONFESSION SCHEDULE

Fr. Martin is available to hear confession immediately before and after each Divine Liturgy.

WELCOME!

We welcome our guests and visitors, and are happy to have them join us in prayer. If you have not officially registered in the parish, and would like to, please speak with Fred.

REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS Please continue to remember in our prayers all the needs of the parish family, the sick and suffering, those who have asked for our prayers, especially Frantisek Vavrak, George Stojkovic, Helena Hukova, Mateo Stojkovic, Serena Bravo, Stella Bravo, Gabriela Machado, and Laura McKenzie. Let us remember the priests and bishops of the Catholic Church, those people who have been denied their basic human rights and dignity, the oppressed, the lonely, the homeless and those who suffer, and those who have no peace of mind or heart. Please contact Fred to have a name added or removed.

Please continue to keep George Stojkovic in your prayers, especially this coming Friday, July 25, as he undergoes surgery. Let us also pray for the Marajh family, as they embark on a new chapter in their lives. May God grant to his servants, George, Rodger and Wendy, many blessed years!
