BRADY V. MARYLAND NOTICE

COMES NOW THE STATE OF TEXAS, by and through her undersigned Assistant District Attorney, and provides the following notice of potentially exculpatory, impeaching, or mitigating evidence, pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963):

1. On June 5, 2018, I received information from Complainant Randy Farrow that the Defendant had been contacting him and Complainant Virginia Jones directly and through intermediaries in violation of the No Contact Order and the no contact condition of the Defendant's bond. When I began investigating those claims, which involved Facebook and other websites, I found that there were numerous posts on the Defendant's Facebook page, including numerous comments on the Defendant's own posts accusing the Defendant of misconduct. Upon closer inspection, it became apparent that many, but not all, of those posts were from a Facebook profile "The Real Prince Charles." The profile page for "The Real Prince Charles" contained additional accusations of misconduct by the Defendant.
2. Following my investigation into the potential bond violations, I contacted Bron Rathert, a witness who has made a complaint with the Harris County District Attorney's Office about the Defendant's conduct to ask him if he was aware of the Facebook profile for "The Real Prince Charles." Mr. Rathert told me that he had created the profile for his dog, but recently he had been using it to post so that
