

January 2026/Tevet 5786 Newsletter

Hello TCJRC Friends,

Here we are together. A new book, a new chapter.

We enter together into the book of Shemot. There arose a new king over Egypt who did not know Joseph. Here our story begins, how tender the conditions of how humans treat one another is relative to relationship. Our liberation story is bound to the human condition of a power source. We are conversely quickly introduced to Shiphrah and Puah, the Hebrew, midwives, who see the true power of the divine over the power source of the king. How brave and holy, these women are, these savers of lives.

We live in a time where we are told not to trust the stranger, that we do not know one another. We must ask who are we? Do we look for the divine in our fellow humans? Do we find the connections and seek to make our world more whole. How do we learn in these chapters, in these retellings from Shiphrah and Puah? To not look far and closely hold the sacred humanity that is all around us.

With blessings and care,
Student Rabbi Shosh Madick
Social Media and Events Director

Documentary Style Interviews of Reb Zalman's Life in Review

by his daughter, Chana Tina Duskis

Documentary 3: Turning Points & Paradigm Shifts

Monday, January 12, 6:30 - 8:30 PM CT on Zoom

Two major turning points that led to the Jewish Renewal and the Sage-ing movement. There is a real-life background story to Reb Zalman's well-known exercise, "The Testimonial Dinner: A Banquet for Our Severe Teachers." We will also hear about personal insights contributing to his move in 1956 which led to his 40- day retreat at age 60.

The Schachter family's passage through post-war trauma, grieving for their lost home and family, and adaptation to a new life in a new world. We discover that the same people and issues that inspired the US Civil Rights Movement and Peace Movement also shaped young Zalman himself, as well as Jewish Renewal and the global Sage-ing that he conceived and founded.

RSVP to Shoshtcjr@gmail.com for the Zoom link. TCJRC Members free and nonmembers $5.00 at this link.

Tu Bishvat Seder led by Rav Michaela Brown

Sunday, February 1st at 1:30 - 3:00 pm

St. Louis Park location given after registration

In the Talmud, we learn that the 15th of Shevat is the New Year for the Trees. In medieval times, Kabbalists created a seder for the holiday modeled after the Passover seder, imbuing the rituals with an exploration of the Four Worlds of Creation. During this seder, we will learn, eat, and explore the wisdom of the Tree and her many fruits as taught by the Jewish mystics. Cosponsored by JPride.

Rabbi Michaela Brown (she/her) is the associate chaplain for Jewish (and Interfaith) Life at both Carleton College and St. Olaf College. She participated in the joint Hebrew College and SVARA Talmud Pedagogy Fellowship where her capstone learning project at Hebrew College was reading about the creation of the first man and woman in the Zohar and analyzing it with queer theory.

Register Here: Write Trees in the anything else box. Limited Space so please RSVP by Wednesday, January 28.

$15 TCJRC Members, $20 Non-Members, and $5 Children Age 10+
