SHERWIN-WILLIAMS®

COLORMIX® 2026

ANTHOLOGY | VOLUME TWO

Introducing Colormix® Anthology Volume Two, our biennial trend report that explores the evolution of key color groups. Our expert Trendsight Team studies color movement across the globe to create these four essential palettes that will guide the future of residential and commercial design.

In Anthology Volume One, we explored the emerging hues and shades of that time. Volume Two welcomes a world of frosted tints, rich reds and golds, restorative darks, and complex neutrals.

NO. 1

AIRY / ATMOSPHERIC
FROSTED TINTS

Hazy lavenders, gauzy blues, enchanted aquamarines, and refreshing greens breeze into a new era with a chill, a hush, and a deliberate dose of near-weightless color.

An evolution of the delicate tints from previous forecasts, milky pastels are making their magnificent return, unfolding in spaces defined by effortlessly clean lines, artful accents, and elevated styling.

GLEAM / GLOW

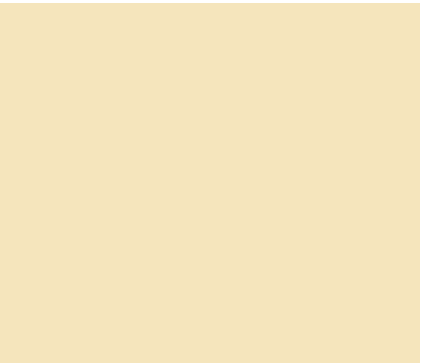

SUNBAKED HUES

Kindling a warmth that recalls the radiance of midcentury design, glimmers of yellow, earthen mauve, pink sandstone, and blushing adobe flicker and flow as the reds, oranges, and golds of the future.

The poetic reds and purples of the past make way for buttery yellows and intensely fiery hues—a collection of colors aglow with incandescence.
