

GRAND BETHEL OF WYOMING
JOB'S DAUGHTERS INTERNATIONAL

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS: For all members, Grand Bethel Officers, Grand Bethel Representatives and Grand Bethel Trustees.

All Officers shall commit to memory all Ritualistic work. All members sit upright, feet flat on the floor, hands resting in lap. When standing, hands are at sides.

IN ORDER TO SPEAK IN A MEETING: During the business part of the meeting, in order to speak at any time, you must rise and wait to be recognized by the Grand Bethel Honored Queen before speaking, and you must first say “Grand Bethel Honored Queen”. Grand Bethel Honored Queen should see that this is always done properly.

The only time you do not have to be recognized is when seconding a motion. Robert’s Rules of Order state that an individual does not have to be recognized by the presiding officer in order to second a motion.

You must always address the Grand Bethel Honored Queen when speaking in the Bethel room. There are no exceptions.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE: Be familiar with Robert’s Rules of Order, revised (latest addition). All of our business is to be conducted under these guidelines (Constitution and Bylaws of the International Order of Job’s Daughters, SI-1).

When the Grand Bethel Honored Queen calls on you, state motion by saying, “Grand Bethel Honored Queen, I move that” -have your thoughts collected so that you state your motion clearly...NOT “whatever so and so just said” or you know, whatever.” Another member must second motion.

Grand Bethel Honored Queen calls for discussion.

ALL MEMBERS: If you desire to bring something up at a meeting, please let the Grand Bethel Board of Trustees know ahead of time. This allows the Trustees to be prepared for the Grand Bethel meeting with suggested by-law or standing rules changes and copies of business items to be considered, as well as giving the Grand Bethel Honored Queen an idea of what is going to be considered.

ELIGIBILITY: The following adults are eligible to attend a closed meeting of Grand Bethel: (1) a Master Mason in good standing; (2) a parent, stepparent, grandparent or guardian of a member or candidate of a Bethel; (3) a woman, at least twenty years of age, who is the wife, daughter, granddaughter, mother, sister, half-sister or widow of a Master Mason; (4) a women who is a member of any adult organization basing its membership requirements on a Masonic relationship, or who, if married, is eligible to membership in such an organization; (5) a majority Member of Job’s Daughters.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father which art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptations, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OPENING PRAYER

Blessed Father, we thank You for the opportunity to meet together. Make us ready and eager to gather knowledge and wisdom that we may grow to become confident young women. Give us faith to trust that You will always guide us and help us to be more accepting of others. We ask that You watch over us and help us learn to do Your will. Amen.

GRAND BETHEL HONORED QUEEN: By virtue of the power vested in me by the Grand Guardian Council of Wyoming, I now declare the Grand Bethel of Wyoming, of the International Order of Job's Daughters in session. (One rap *) All sing – “Behold We are the Daughters of Job.”

CLOSING

HONORED QUEEN: Our Labors are at an end and we are about to separate for a time. Each one should carry the memory of the lessons taught and strive to apply them to her daily life. Let us ask God to help us live justly, to love and honor those near and dear to us and to radiate happiness to all mankind. Our Grand Bethel Chaplain will lead us in prayer. (Three Raps ***).

CHAPLAIN: Oh Lord, bless and protect everyone present and let the light of Thy countenance shine upon us. Help us to be thoughtful and understanding of those with whom we associate. Give us peace and happiness throughout the coming year. AMEN. All sing – “Now Our Work is Over”. Bible is closed as per the Ritual.

HONORED QUEEN: I now declare this Grand Bethel meeting closed. All present except Grand Bethel Officers, Grand Bethel Representatives, Grand Bethel Guardian and Grand Bethel Associate Guardian will please be seated until the Grand Bethel Officers and Grand Bethel Representatives have retired. Custodians remove chairs as for a regular meeting. Officers form cross standing. Representatives retire as per instructions for choir in the Ritual forming two lines in the West. All remain standing for “Nearer My God to Thee”. Officers form line in the West as per the Ritual.

GUARDIAN: This concludes our ceremony. (One rap *)

DEGREE OF ROYAL PURPLE

1. This Degree is to be given only at the request of the Supreme or Grand Guardian.
2. The ceremony shall be given at the Annual Session of the SGC by the Supreme Bethel, the Annual Session of the GGC by the Grand Bethel, or at a regular Bethel meeting when requested by the Supreme or Grand Guardian.
3. If the Degree is to be given by the Supreme Bethel, Grand Bethel or Bethel, the Supreme Bethel Honored Queen, Grand Bethel Honored Queen, or Honored Queen shall be notified as soon as possible, and the speaking parts shall be distributed to the necessary officers.
4. The Chairman of the Degree of Royal Purple Committee shall prepare the certificates, arrange for the purchase of the roses, order the medallions, medals or pins and arrange for appropriate engraving. All items shall be available for presentation at the ceremony.
5. All speaking parts shall be memorized.
6. Recipients of the Degree of Royal Purple shall be seated with their Bethels or in reserved seats. If there is more than one recipient they shall be seated on the North and South Marching sidelines.
7. If there is only one recipient the speaking parts should be changed to reflect a single person.

HONORED QUEEN: Members and friends, we have assembled here to honor these Daughters who have been especially generous in dedicating their time and efforts in promoting their Bethels and the International Order of Job's Daughters. As Job's Daughters we are expected to be "The Fairest in the Land", but it is often easy to fall short of the mark. The Daughter who always displays faith, trust, responsibility, respect and love should be rewarded. It is with this in mind that we meet to confer the Degree of Royal Purple.

Guide, and Marshal, you will escort the Daughters who are to receive the Degree to the East Line facing west. Recipients rise. Guide and Marshal leave their stations in the West, turn right and left respectively to the North and South Marching Lines and march to the East collecting the recipients on the sidelines. Proceed with escorting the recipients to the East Line as per Ritual. All face west. Guide shall be given the recipients' names prior to the ceremony.

GUIDE: I have the pleasure to present _____ who are entitled to receive the Degree of Royal Purple. Recipients nod as name is give. Guide and Marshal then cause the recipients to turn and face the Honored Queen.

HONORED QUEEN: The purpose of Job's Daughters is to teach young woman to live responsibly, morally and righteously. The Book of Job is a strong foundation upon which to build this training for it deals with a real person, a fallible human being, Job. By studying the trials triumphs of this man, we hope to discover how to direct our own lives so that we may receive our final reward. Honored Queen is seated.

Princesses and Custodians rise. Custodians take the Dove and Urn from the pedestals, turn to the center, turn East and ascend the dais. Junior Custodian stands on the left of the Junior Princess and Senior Custodian stands on the right of the Senior Princess. They had the Urn and the Dove to their respective Princesses.

JUNIOR PRINCESS: Upon receiving the Degree of Royal Purple you will be given a medallion (medal or pin). On it you will find engraved a figure of a Junior Princess holding a white Dove as I do now. It is meant to remind you of the lessons of the First Epoch. Remember always to be patient and diligent in your work, and as Job endeavored to teach his children of the power of prayer, may you also continue being useful instruments in conveying God's love and peace.

SENIOR PRINCESS: On your medallion (medal or pin) you will find pictured a Senior Princess holding the Urn of Incense. It symbolizes the important lessons of the Second Epoch, the story of Job's anguish and suffering, and the final triumph of his dedication to his Creator. If you ever begin to doubt that there is a Supreme Being, study the soft colors of the sunrise or the fragrant beauty of a rose, and your faith will be renewed.

Princesses return the Dove and the Urn to the Custodians who descent the dais, replace the Dove and the Urn on the pedestals and return to their stations. Princesses and Custodians are seated at the same time.

HONORED QUEEN: Rises and takes Horn of Plenty in her hands: With the two Princesses, your medallion (medal or pin) has engraved upon it an Honored Queen and her symbol. You have learned well the teachings of the First and Second Epochs or you would not be receiving the Degree of Royal Purple. Yet, even in this hour set apart in your honor, you have another lesson to learn, that of reward. Replaces Horn of Plenty. You must realize that the reward of receiving the Degree of Royal Purple does not signify the termination of your work in Job's Daughters. Rather, it should inspire you to continue in your devotion to our Order. You must remember that all people are equal, regardless of race, creed, color or achievement, and you must not allow pride or conceit to interfere in your relationships with other Daughters of the Bethel(s). You must, above all, live up to your own high standards, that you may encourage others to adopt the kind of live that merits the Degree of Royal Purple.

Our Chaplain will lead us in prayer. Guide and Marshal, you will escort our member(s) west of the Altar. (Three raps ***)

Guide leads to the North Marching Line, turns and marches west to the Altar Line, turns south past the Chaplain's chair and continues into semicircle, stops and faces east. Guide and Marshal take one step back, Musician plays, "Holy, Holy, Holy" as Chaplain attends at the Altar.

CHAPLAIN: Dear Lord, we ask that special blessings rest upon these members. May they be truly grateful for the honor, which is bestowed upon them today. As they have known the joy of work well done, may we all become useful messengers of Your peace. Amen.

Musician plays appropriate music as Chaplain returns to her station. Princesses with certificate(s) and rose(s) descend from dais and proceed side by side to the Altar Line. (One rap *)

JUNIOR PRINCESS: This certificate represents the love and appreciation of those with whom you have worked, and the years spent in your association with Job's Daughters. Enters semicircle between Altar and Treasurer's station, presents certificates and returns to position east of the Altar.

SENIOR PRINCESS: May the beauty of this (these) rose(s) remind you of the beauty of the lessons you have learned in this Order. Enters semicircle between Altar and Chaplain's station, presents roses and returns to position east of the Altar. Princesses step back three steps, turn together, march to East, ascend dais and are seated.

Honored Queen carrying gavel and medallions (medals or pins) descends to the Altar Line. Medallions (medals or pins) may be in place beside the Altar before the ceremony.

HONORED QUEEN: I now present you with the medallion (medal or pin) of the Degree of Royal Purple. May you learn to wear it with grace, dignity and humility, that your character reflects the lessons of Job's Daughters. Enter semicircle between Altar and Chaplain's station. Places medallions (medals or pins), one by one, around the recipients' necks or presents pins to the recipients. She then returns to her station.

SPECIAL MUSIC. (Optional)

Three raps of gavel ()

HONORED QUEEN: Members and friends, these members have proven themselves to be deserving of your respect and admiration and I would ask that you now join me in extending to them a very hearty congratulations. Applause. One rap of gavel (). Guide and Marshal, you will escort her (them) to the sidelines. Guide and Marshal escort the recipients to the sidelines or reserved seats and then return to their stations. One rap of gavel ().

FORGET ME NOT

Honored Queen will be used for the purpose of the following “Award”. Grand Bethel Honored Queen or whatever may be substituted.

HONORED QUEEN: (Rises) Members and friends of the International Order of Job's Daughters, we have come together at this time to honor those Daughters who have given of themselves, their love, their dedication and their time to further the objectives of Job's Daughters... to be “the fairest in the land”. To fulfill this purpose, we now confer the Forget Me Not Award.

Guide and Marshal, (both rise) you will retire and escort the Daughter(s) who is/are to be honored with this Award into the Bethel Room.

Guide and Marshall will retire in the usual manner, leaving by the Ante Room door. They reenter with the usual ceremony, Guide leading, followed by the recipients and then the Marshal. Proceed to the East Line, turn North, stop between the Altar and the East, facing the Honored Queen. Guide and Marshal take one step back.

GUIDE: Honored Queen, I have the honor to present (read name, recipient nods when her name is called)

RECORDER: (name) was nominated for this award by. She has been active in Job's Daughters for Years and has contributed to her bethel in the following manner: (excerpts from the nominating letters)

Guide and Recorder will continue with this discourse for each recipient until all have been introduced and a brief history given.

GUIDE: She/They has/have been found worthy and deserving of the Forget Me Not award.

HONORED QUEEN: (Rises) Through the course of your life/lives as a Job's Daughter, you learned to live in a just and upright manner with responsibility, morality and righteousness. The “Book of Job” has been a strong support by which we all pattern our lives as Job's Daughters. May you ever find yourself/yourselves worthy to be known as “The Daughters of Job.” (Honored Queen is seated.)

Each Messenger, starting with the first, will rise at their station, speak their line and be seated.

FIRST MESSENGER: During the ceremony of the First Epoch, we are told of Job's appreciation and respect for all that surrounded him. He Praised God daily for all that he had and taught others to share in his righteousness. By your nomination for this Award it is evident that you too, have taught others to share in your belief in God and love of Job's Daughters. May you continue to praise God for all that He has given you.

SECOND MESSENGER: Job endured a test of his faith when he lost everything dear to him, yet he continued to worship God. Even among his devastation he could find that “silver lining” – a God that loved him unconditionally. As you face the trials in your life/lives, however large or small, remember that you are never alone. You will always have God’s love and the love of your friends in Job’s Daughters to see you through.

THIRD MESSENGER: In the ceremony of the Second Epoch, we are given the building blocks for our individual character. Job was tempted by his friends to renounce his faith in God, but refused and remained steadfast in his beliefs. May you remember the lessons of our Order when confronted with pressures or temptations to stray from God and his teachings.

FOURTH MESSENGER: On the path to Job’s triumph over the Adversary, Job confronted God asking him questions which we all at times want answers to. Job received the answers he desired. Job discovered his own humility and God rewarded him by restoring all that had been taken from him. May you remember humility in your daily life/lives and you too will receive the reward.

FIFTH MESSENGER: The ceremony of the Third Epoch emphasizes the uncertainty that exists in all our lives; much is out of our control. We must give our lives to God as Job did, remaining constant in our beliefs and we will gather His reward for our steadfastness. Continue to let it be your purpose so to live that the members of our Order will be known throughout the land as true Daughters of Job.

(The Princesses and Custodians rise. The Custodians will each pick up their emblem, the Forget Me Not Flowers and a Holy Bible. The Jr. Custodian will have the flowers; the Sr. Custodian will have the Bible. The Custodians will face the recipients.)

JUNIOR PRINCESS: Upon receiving the Forget Me Not Award, you will receive a medallion. In the center of the medallion you will find a Forget Me Not flower, (Jr. Custodian holds up the flowers) which is a tribute of our love to each other. The flower means everlasting love and represents strength of character. So you and your life/lives have influenced our Order. (Jr. Custodian may lower the flowers.)

SENIOR PRINCESS: On the outer edge of the medallion you will find the motto, “Fairest in the Land”. Remember the Holy Bible (Sr. Custodian holds up a Bible) and the passage upon which Job’s Daughters is founded, “In all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job, and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren”, which has been a cornerstone in your life/lives as a Job’s Daughter.

HONORED QUEEN: In addition to the flower and inscription on the outer edge, you will find the words, Forget Me Not and Wyoming Job’s Daughter, surrounding the triangle. The triangle represents the emblem of Job’s Daughters and Wyoming Job’s Daughter reminds us of our heritage in a wonderful State. As there is no other state to compare to our own, so there are no Daughters compared to the Daughters of Job.

Let us pause a moment as the Librarian (Librarian rises) relates the significance of the Forget Me Not flower to Masonry.

LIBRARIAN: The Forget Me Not flower has been significant to Masonry since early in World War II. As Hitler and the Nazis rose to power, it became apparent that Freemasonry was in danger. Masons in Germany realized the imminent threat to their existence and elected to wear a little blue flower, the Forget Me Not, in lieu of the traditional Square and Compasses, as a way of identifying fellow Brethren without attracting the attention of the Nazis. Throughout the Nazi era, a little blue flower in a lapel marked a Brother, in the Concentration Camps as well as in the cities, allowing the Light of Masonry to continue amidst the darkness of war and devastation. Thus did a simple flower blossom forth into a meaningful emblem of the Fraternity. (Librarian is seated).

HONORED QUEEN: Receiving the Forget Me Not does not signify the end of your life as a Job's Daughter, but the beginning of a labor of love by continuing your devotion and your commitment to our Order. Remember to live up to your own high standards and endeavor to teach and encourage others to adopt the kind of live that would merit this Degree.

Guide and Marshal step forward, Guide leads to the North, turns at North line, proceeds to the Altar line, turns South past Chaplain's chair, enters semicircle between Altar and Chaplains chair, forms, line facing East.)

Our Chaplain will lead us in prayer. (Three raps ) Altar Music. Chaplain attends at the Altar.

CHAPLAIN: Dear Lord, we ask that you look down upon these Daughters with a special blessing that only You may bestow. Give them the wisdom to understand that which they have been honored for and grant them the desire to continue their work. Bless them for what they have contributed to our Order and grant them a long and blessed life that they may continue to serve under Your watchful guidance. In Thy Name's sake we pray. Amen.

(Chaplain returns to her station. One rap. Princesses descend from the East; proceed side by side to the Altar line.)

(Jr. Princess enters the semicircle between the station of Treasurer and the Altar, presents flowers to each Daughter and returns to previous position.)

JUNIOR PRINCESS: These flowers represent not only the name of the Award, but also serve to remind you of your life and the beauty of our Order.

(Sr. Princess enters semicircle between the Chaplain and the Altar, give each Daughter certificate and returns to her previous position.)

SENIOR PRINCESS: This certificate represents the appreciation of those with whom you have exhibited your love and dedication, and for the time you have given to Job's Daughters.

(Princesses back up three steps, turn together and return to the East and their stations. Princesses are seated. Honored Queen descends to the Altar Line, enters the semicircle between the Altar and Chaplain, takes medallion, one by one from the West Altar pad and places it around each daughter's neck.)

HONORED QUEEN: I now present you with the Medallion of the Forget Me Not Award. May you wear it with pride as a representative of love, truth, honor and dedication. Remember, no one is honored for what they receive; they are honored for what they have given.

(Honored Queen returns to previous position on the Altar Line.)

(There may be a special song at this time. After the music, the Honored Queen backs up three steps, turns and returns to her station. If there is no music, follow the same procedure.)

HONORED QUEEN: (Three raps *) Members and friends, this/these Daughter(s) has/have merited the honor of the Forget Me Not Award and are deserving of your respect and admiration. Would you please join me in giving her/them a hearty congratulations. (One rap *)

Guide and Marshal, you will conduct these daughters to the seats reserved for them.

This concludes our ceremony. (One rap *)
