ABOUT BLDG-12

(pronounced 'Building Twelve')

The band "BLDG-12". Named after the storage garage where this band's hard rock, garage band style was born in the 80's. Decades of stage experience show through every performance with passion and drive, creating the very best of no B.S. REAL ROCK. Whether playing a variety of deeper cut cover tunes, or outstanding originals, BLDG-12 delivers. Tight and clean, with a hard edge guaranteed to move any audience.
