

DokraArts Private Limited

Dokra is one of the ancient Indian Metal Art Form showcasing the local lifestyle and culture of people making the metal (brass) art. The vanishing wax method of metal casting, popularly known as Dokra, is a primitive technique. It can be traced back to the Indus Valley civilization and is considered popular because of its wide usage, cultural connectivity, and folk charisma.

Bikna, Bankura, West Bengal • Dwariapur, East Bardhaman, WB

About Us

Two villages in West Bengal in Dwariapur, Purba Bardhaman and Bikna, Bankura having 300 plus Dokra Artisan families are engaged in this community enterprise through two Industrial Cooperative Societies. Their organised community enterprise building engagement is on since 2014 for their development and commercial viability. In 2020-2021 two boot camps were carried out under MSDE Gol PMYuva Project on the foundation of which a Producers Company is being created with a plugged in Private Limited Company where these 2 ICSs and their beneficiaries are coming into as partners and jointly engaged to create scale through aggregated market inputs and market linkages through high value sales and sales through art auctioning.
