BRISTOL BINGO

Your favorite space could be any place from Colt State Park to your own backyard.

Your favorite building could be the Belvedere, Bristol Bagel, or your own home.

Hi! My name is Pandora and I'm the official mascot of the Bristol Historical & Preservation Society. I have a nose for digging out the coolest places in Bristol. Here are some of my favorites, and don't forget to hashtag what you find using #BristolBingo.

MIND & BODY

Local walking tours are offered by the Bristol Historical & Preservation Society, Linden Place, and other organizations. Please check the Bristol Phoenix or individual websites for further details.

Bristol is home to many walking trails. They can be found at the Audubon Center, Colt State Park, Mount Hope Farm, and along the East Bay Bike Path.

Bristol museums include the Bristol Historical & Preservation Society, the Audubon Center, the Herreshoff Marine Museum, Linden Place, Blithewold Mansion & Gardens, Coggeshall Farm Museum, and the Bristol Art Museum.

If you are looking to enjoy the great outdoors, Bristol offers many different options for the entire family. Please visit <https://www.bristolri.gov/places/> to view an interactive map and a complete, detailed list of what to do and where to go.

LOCAL PLACES AND HISTORY

Local memorials or monuments can include anything from the Firefighter's Memorial Garden, Veteran's Memorial Park, the Memorial Garden on Hope Street, the Rhode Island Slave History Medallions at Linden Place and DeWolf Tavern, or any of the individual monuments scattered around town. As you find them, please share! Post your pictures using #BristolBingo.

Local sculptures include the two in Independence Park, the installations in front of Colt School, the Colt State Park Bulls, the Senator John Chafee statue, and the outdoor collections at Blithewold Mansion & Gardens, and Linden Place.

Have a favorite Rhode Island food? Visit your local food truck or stop by one of Bristol's many restaurants and cafes for your favorite local delicacy.

Local historic homes include Blithewold, Linden Place, and Coggeshall Farm Museum's farmhouse. You can also see historic interiors at the Bristol Historical & Preservation Society and at Mount Hope Farm.

When it comes to local farms or farmers' markets, think outside the box! Purchasing produce from a farm stand or from the Mount Hope Farmers' Market both count!
