"Paul Simon once said that every song must tell a story. This is how I feel about painting."

There are a lot of stories to be told. Some are happy, some are sad, some are thought-provoking. I want viewers of my art to come away with some kind of emotion that resonates with them. My message to viewers of my art is to chase your dreams and live your ambitions. Whatever you do with your life, do it with all of your heart. It's never too late to start something new."
