213 East Main St. Medford, OR 97501 Open 10 – 4 Tuesday through Sunday. (541) 770-3190

In the Art Vault Bonnie McManus

“ I moved to Medford, in the summer of 2016 from San Antonio, Texas. Having grown up in Santa Fe, New Mexico, my husband and I were immediately drawn to the beautiful mountains, forests and beaches of Oregon. I took up pastel painting in 2020 when I realized I would be a shut-in due to the pandemic. With an opportunity to take an art class over zoom and not having ever used pastels, I was immediately hooked! It was one of the best decisions I've ever made! We have one grown daughter who resides in Texas and a fur baby named Brandy. My birth name, Bonnelyn, means beautiful waterfall and that is how I sign my work.”

We are pleased to welcome our newest member Kathy Hacksock to our cooperative. The fall change-out has taken place with plenty of new artwork on hand. Always something new at AdJ!

On the Grey Wall Nancy Sterling

“ I begin each new piece with a found inspirational element and then watch as the design starts to reveal itself. Rather than force a preconceived design, I stay open to any change and redirection as the piece speaks to me.

My three dimensional assemblages are created using clay, driftwood, metal, findings and natural elements - all interacting against various textural fabrics and clay backgrounds.”
