New Vision for a New Year

2022 has been a year of immense change, and our co-operative has made every effort to adapt with a blend of innovative as well as classical works of art. As we begin a new year we welcome two new members in Cara Morgan and Paula Cooper. Everything appears in place for us to keep things going in 2023.

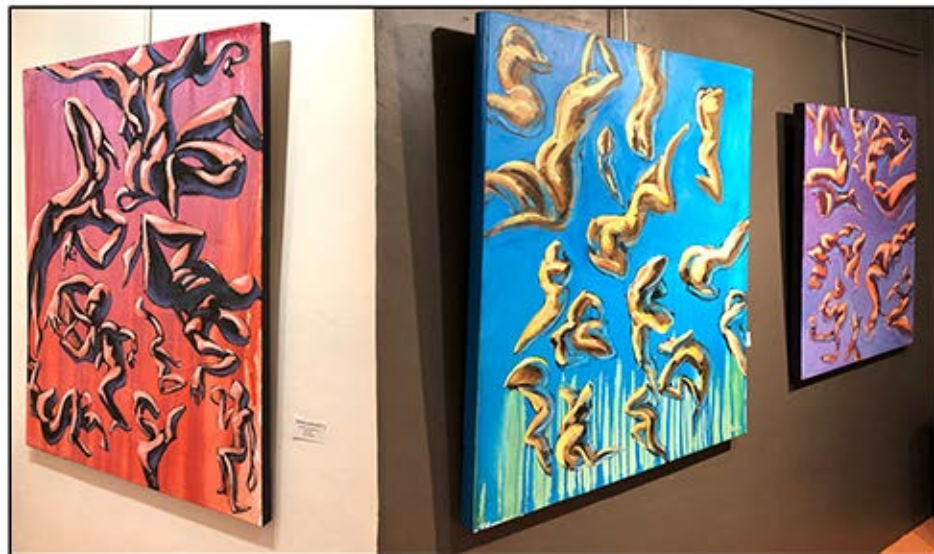

The Art Vault continues hosting Karl Brake through the month. We encourage visitors to stop in at Solid Grounds Coffee & Tea to sit, sip and enjoy even more of our art.

Zero-G Humanity Through January

Our guest artist Karl Brake writes that his work revolves around universal themes, the interplay of human presence in psychic and landscape space, and the landscape itself. Using color as a gateway to liberation, often using intuitive color relationships to connect his subjective experience to a collective one.

A full-time faculty member in the Visual Arts and Design Department at Rogue Community College in Grants Pass, he teaches classes in Drawing, Figure Drawing, Design, Painting Art History, Gallery Design and Management, Scenic Painting and Design.

AdJ continues seeking Rogue Valley artists who are interested in joining a co-operative and exhibit their work to the public. For membership information we encourage you to visit the gallery or contact any current member.
