

THAT'S WHAT I THINK GOD WOULD SAY

Written by: Mark Alan Weiss

Down on my knees I asked the Lord above
What can I say or do that must be done
If someone's lost and needs to hear the truth today
Here's what I think God would say

The world will try to change what's right and wrong
Say there is no truth that's true for everyone
Yea, contradiction fills the culture of the day
But here's what I think God would say

I think God would say
Everything's gonna be okay
He's in control and he knows just what to do
Get on your knees and pray
Read the Bible every day
So you'll be close to him and know the truth
Then you can live it, love it, share it, and from it
Live a life like you were made and meant to do
And Rejoice (Hallelujah), Rejoice (Hallelujah)
Rejoice (Hal-le-lu-jah)
Rejoice (Hallelujah), Everything's gonna be okay
That's what I think God would say

The world says all religions are the same
That they lead to the same God with different names
And they condone a kind of love that's not okay
But here's what I think God would say

I think God would say
Jesus is the way
He died up on the cross and rose for you
Get on your knees and pray
Read the Bible every day
So you'll be close to him and know the truth
Then you can live it, love it, share it, and from it
Live a life like you were made and meant to do
And Rejoice (Hallelujah), Rejoice (Hallelujah)
Rejoice (Hal-le-lu-jah)
Rejoice (Hallelujah), Yea, Jesus is the way
That's what I think God would say

If you believe it, ask him, into your heart
And with your mouth say I believe it's true
Then you can live it, love it, share it, and from it
Live a life like you were made and meant to do
When-I-say Rejoice say Hallelujah, Rejoice (Hallelujah)
Rejoice (Hal-le-lu-jah)
Rejoice (Hal-le-lu-jah), Rejoice (Hal-le-lu-jah)
Rejoice (Hal-le-lu-jah)
Rejoice (Hallelujah), Yea, Jesus is the way
That's what I think God would say
