Still finalizing your weekend plans? Join us for The Lighthouse: Past, Present & Future, a benefit for the Hudson-Athens Lighthouse at The River Grill in Athens this Sunday, July 16th from 1P to 3P. Appetizers and cocktails provided by our gracious hosts, The Stewart House, with help from donation partners James & James Bay Leaf Gin, LeMon Myer Lemon Apertif, Hudson-Chatham

Winery & 1857 Vodka. There will be a silent auction set to the vocal stylings of crooner, Isaak James too. Get your tickets here!

Do you know about our Federal Funding Initiative? You can read all about it here! Please help us encourage our Federal and State Legislators to secure this funding to help repair, restore, and protect the damaged underwater foundation of the Hudson-Athens Lighthouse by signing our online petition here.

Many thanks to all the volunteers who have helped with this legislative initiative, especially Dr. Susan Senecah who has led the charge! Thank you, Sue!

And a big THANK YOU to all the volunteers who make it possible to bring the youth from our community to the Hudson-Athens Lighthouse. Pictured are some of this years fifth grade class from the Hudson City School District with cherished lighthouse volunteers, Sue Ihlenberg and Rodney Russo.

HALPS is responsible for the restoration and preservation of the Hudson-Athens Lighthouse. New memberships and donations are critical for continued access to this historical Hudson Valley treasure.
