The poster is a vibrant, tropical-themed advertisement for a luau party. At the top, the word "LUAAU" is written in large, stylized, bamboo-like letters, with "Party!" in a pink, cursive font below it. To the left of the text is a large, carved wooden tiki mask with a wide, toothy grin, adorned with a lei of pink and yellow hibiscus flowers. To the right is a circular badge with a rope border containing the text "$25 PER PERSON". Below the title, a white speedboat with "KINGSTON POWER BOAT" written on its side is shown on the water. A wooden sign below the boat displays the date and time: "AUGUST 15TH 2PM". To the right of the sign are two frozen drinks, one blue and one white, garnished with fruit and umbrellas. Below these are six circular images of food items: pulled pork sliders, chicken teriyaki skewers, a hotdog, Hawaiian macaroni salad, pasta salad, and a dessert. To the right of the food images is a sign that says "FROZEN DRINK SPECIALS". At the bottom, there are three sections: "DUCK RACE!" featuring a large yellow rubber duck wearing sunglasses, "LIVE BAND" featuring three musicians in Hawaiian attire, and "50/50" featuring a pink tag that says "50/50 RAFFLE". The entire poster is decorated with various tropical flowers and palm leaves.
