PERSONAL GROWTH
SOCIAL GOOD

Summer/Fall
2021

Dear Team Members, Supporters and Friends of SO LArMAR,

I hope you had a great summer. It was a little cooler than usual which was a blessing.

The Advisory Team met live in September. This was the first live meeting since COVID. We added three new Advisory Team members: John Blackwell – Heart of Austin Homes/Keller Williams – Real Estate Advisor, Joshua Levy – Executive Director – Joshua’s Stage – Social Enrichment and Scott Alan Brunson – Artist – Sculpture Garden, Art Gallery, and Innovative Housing.

They join continuing advisory members: Brian Rawson – Director – Riverbend Neighborhood Development Center, Mark Piening – Founder and CEO – Project Lighthouse, and Stuart Alderman – Principal – Block16 Architects and Urbanists.

The vision for SO LArMAR has not changed, and we continue in the concept phase. The concept phase is currently organized around architecture/design, marketing/internal programs, information systems/media platforms, innovative housing*, innovative financial planning*, personal growth/training, social good outreach/volunteering. *New
