Many of us experience complex relationships with our fathers, step-fathers, or grandfathers with a mixture of love, loyalty, and respect, or the trauma of being rejected, absent, or abused. No matter what your relationship is or was with your father, it can be released and healed. Through a unique process of elemental cord connection and release, you'll have the opportunity to heal your relationship in the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual realms ~ leaving the negative experience sealed, permanently in the past, while embracing the positive. This process happens once! No longer will you continue to repeat the patterns of your childhood.

Why this is a great gift to yourself!

Many of us experience complex relationships with our fathers, step-fathers, or grandfathers with a mixture of love, loyalty, and respect, or the trauma of being rejected, absent, or abused.

No matter what your relationship is or was with your father, it can be released and healed. Through a unique process of elemental cord connection and release, you'll have the opportunity to heal your relationship in the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual realms – leaving the negative experience sealed, permanently in the past, while embracing the positive.

This process happens once! It typically improves and shifts the relationship with your father and within ourselves. No longer will you continue to repeat the patterns of your childhood. This experience will leave behind past hurts and ascend to freedom and authentic self-expression.

Please join us on this unique journey of “Healing the Father Within.”

Here is an Angel Reading just for you!

The Symbols surrounding the reading:

Rose Quartz – known as the “stone of unconditional love.” It helps process grief, reduce trauma and promotes, friendship and compassion, strengthens romantic bonds.

Quan Yin – “She Who Hears the Cries of the World,” representing her vow to postpone her own enlightenment to comfort and alleviate suffering.

The Sun – a universal symbol of life, energy, and renewal.

The Egg – represents completeness, the cycle of life, and spiritual shielding against negativity.

Malachite – the “Stone of Transformation.” Used for deep energetic cleansing, breaking negative behavioral patterns, and opening the heart to new growth. A powerful energetic protector, absorbing negative energies and clearing emotional blockages.

Kunzite – known as a “Stone of Emotion” in crystal healing. It is highly valued for fostering emotional healing, encouraging unconditional love, and connecting the heart and the mind.

— ANGEL READING —

Your spiritual guides are reminding you that to truly give or receive love, your first intention for tenderness must be directed inward. It is a sign to forgive yourself and prioritize healthy boundaries.

eX-haled (From Trauma to Freedom)

In mid December, I had a tooth extracted. Under laughing gas, I had a hallucination. I was in the back of a church/temple. All the pews had my teeth with their long roots standing and bowing to the Holy Molar on the pulpit. All my life traumas were lined up, entering the Holy Molar – I heard the endodontist say, "It's not coming out." Then I heard an inner voice say, "Forgive". According to the tech I said, "I forgive – now GET OUT!" and the molar popped out in its entirety. Since then, the traumas are gone. I'm free!!!
